NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2023

(Unaudited)

Note 1 — Organization

American Strategic Investment Co. (including, New York City Operating Partnership L.P., (the “OP”) and its subsidiaries, the “Company”) is an externally managed company that currently owns a portfolio of commercial real estate located within the five boroughs of New York City, primarily Manhattan. The Company’s real estate assets consist of office properties and certain real estate assets that accompany office properties, including retail spaces and amenities. During the quarter ended September 30, 2021, the Company also began operating Innovate NYC at the Company’s 1140 Avenue of the Americas property, a co-working company that is specific to this property only, that offers move-in ready private offices, virtual offices, and meeting spaces on bespoke terms to clients. As of September 30, 2023, the Company owned eight properties consisting of 1.2 million rentable square feet, acquired for an aggregate purchase price of $790.7 million.

On December 30, 2022, the Company announced that it was changing its business strategy by expanding the scope of the assets and businesses it may own and operate. The Company may now seek to acquire assets such as hotels, expand its co-working office space business and seek to invest in and operate businesses such as hotel or parking lot management companies. By investing in other asset types, the Company may generate income that does not otherwise constitute income that qualifies for purposes of qualifying as a real estate investment trust for United States (“U.S.”) federal income tax purposes (“REIT”). Excluding hotels, these additional assets do not generate REIT-qualifying income and are operating businesses. As a result, on January 9, 2023, the Company’s board of directors authorized the termination of the Company’s REIT election which became effective on January 1, 2023. Historically, the Company filed an election to be taxed as a REIT commencing with its taxable year ended December 31, 2014, which remained in effect with respect to each taxable year ending on or before December 31, 2022.

As a consequence of the Company’s decision to terminate its election to be taxed as a REIT, the ownership limitations set forth in Section 5.7 of its charter, including, without limitation, the “Aggregate Share Ownership Limit,” as defined therein, no longer apply. The Company filed with the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland a Certificate of Notice reflecting the board’s determination that it is no longer in its best interest to continue to qualify as a REIT and that therefore the Aggregate Share Ownership Limit will no longer be in effect.

On January 11, 2023 the Company effected a 1-for-8 reverse stock split that was previously approved by the Company’s board of directors, resulting in each outstanding share of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the “Class A common stock”) being converted into 0.125 shares of common stock, with no fractional shares being issued (the “Reverse Stock Split”). All references made to share or per share amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements and applicable disclosures have been retroactively adjusted to reflect the Reverse Stock Split.

Additionally, effective January 19, 2023, the Company amended its charter to change its name to “American Strategic Investment Co.” from “New York City REIT, Inc.” Trading of the Company’s Class A common stock on the New York Stock Exchange under the new name began on January 20, 2023 under the existing trading symbol “NYC.” Shares of the Company’s Class A common stock were first listed on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) on August 18, 2020. Also, on February 22, 2023, the Company completed a non-transferable rights offering raising gross proceeds of $5.0 million (the “Rights Offering”). As a result, the Company issued 386,100 shares of its Class A common stock subscribed for in the Rights Offering on February 27, 2023.

Substantially all of the Company’s business is conducted through the OP and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. The Company’s advisor, New York City Advisors, LLC (the “Advisor”), manages the Company’s day-to-day business with the assistance of the Company’s property manager, New York City Properties, LLC (the “Property Manager”). The Advisor and Property Manager are under common control with AR Global Investments, LLC (“AR Global”) and these related parties receive compensation and fees for providing services to the Company. The Company also reimburses these entities for certain expenses they incur in providing these services. Please see Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements for additional information on the Company’s Advisor and affiliates of the Advisor, including ownership percentages.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2023

(Unaudited)

Note 2 — Summary of Significant Accounting PoliciesBasis of Accounting

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Company included herein were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) for interim financial information and with the instructions to this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. The information furnished includes all adjustments and accruals of a normal recurring nature, which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair statement of results for the interim periods. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, are not necessarily indicative of the results for the entire year or any subsequent interim period.

These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022, which are included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on March 16, 2023. Except for those required by new accounting pronouncements discussed below, there have been no significant changes to the Company’s significant accounting policies during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, the OP and its subsidiaries. All inter-company accounts and transactions are eliminated in consolidation. In determining whether the Company has a controlling financial interest in a joint venture and the requirement to consolidate the accounts of that entity, management considers factors such as ownership interest, authority to make decisions and contractual and substantive participating rights of the other partners or members as well as whether the entity is a variable interest entity (“VIE”) for which the Company is the primary beneficiary. Substantially all the Company’s assets and liabilities are held by the OP. The Company has determined the OP is a VIE of which the Company is the primary beneficiary.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Management makes significant estimates regarding revenue recognition, purchase price allocations to record investments in real estate, and fair value measurements, as applicable.

Non-controlling Interests

The non-controlling interests represent the portion of the equity in the OP that is not owned by the Company. Under the multi-year outperformance agreement with the Advisor (the “2020 OPP”), the OP issued a class of units of limited partnership (“LTIP Units”) during 2020, which have historically been reflected as part of non-controlling interest. The performance period under the 2020 OPP which expired on August 18, 2023. On November 7, 2023 the compensation committee of the board of directors of the Company, determined that none of the 501,605 LTIP Units (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) subject to the 2020 OPP had been earned, and these LTIP Units were thus automatically forfeited effective as of August 18, 2023. On that date, the Company reclassified amounts reflected in non-controlling interest for these LTIP Units to additional paid in capital on its consolidated balance sheet and consolidated statements of changes in equity. See Note 7 - Stockholders’ Equity and Note 11 - Equity-Based Compensation for additional information.

Impacts of the COVID-19 Pandemic

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. During the quarter ended March 31, 2020, the global COVID-19 pandemic commenced. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic evolved rapidly and resulted in a decrease in economic activity. One of the hardest hit locations, New York City, is where all of the Company’s properties are located.

(Unaudited)

The negative effects of the global pandemic impacted the ability of some of the Company's tenants to pay their monthly rent during 2020 and 2021, which in some cases led to breaches of certain debt covenants, some of which are still in effect (see below). However, with the exception of one minor lease deferral during the quarter ended September 30, 2022, which was unrelated to the impact of COVID-19, the trend of tenants not paying monthly rent did not continue during 2022 or in the first three quarters of the year ending December 31, 2023. The Company took a proactive approach to achieve mutually agreeable solutions with some of its tenants and in some cases, during 2020 and 2021, the Company executed different types of lease amendments with multiple tenants which included deferrals, abatements, extensions to the term of the leases, and in one instance, a reduction of the lease term and the Company continues to modify leases as opportunities arise. During the quarter ended September 30, 2023 the Company had one tenant's lease naturally expire. During the period ending June 30, 2023 one tenant elected an early termination for October of 2023, which was unrelated to the impact of COVID-19. We also had one new lease that commenced during the period ending September 30, 2023.

As a result of the financial difficulties of some of the Company's tenants during 2020 and 2021, as described above, the Company has had breaches of debt covenants on mortgages secured by its 9 Times Square, 1140 Avenue of Americas, Laurel/Riverside and 8713 Fifth Avenue properties under the non-recourse mortgages for those properties. These breaches caused cash trap events, where operating cash flow from the property after debt service was held in restricted cash as additional collateral for the loan, that continued through the quarter ended September 30, 2023 (except for the 9 Times Square and Laurel/Riverside properties), but were not events of default. Currently, the Company is no longer in breach of the covenants for the Laurel/Riverside property or for its 9 Times Square property. The Company remains in breach of the 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue loans as of September 30, 2023. See Note 4 — Mortgage Notes Payable, Net for further details regarding the current status, as of September 30, 2023, of the debt covenants under the mortgages secured by these properties.

For accounting purposes, in accordance with ASC 842: Leases, normally a company would be required to assess a lease modification to determine if the lease modification should be treated as a separate lease and if not, modification accounting would be applied which would require a company to reassess the classification of the lease (including leases for which the prior classification under ASC 840 was retained as part of the election to apply the package of practical expedients allowed upon the adoption of ASC 842, which does not apply to leases subsequently modified). However, in light of the COVID-19 pandemic in which many leases have been modified, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") and the SEC provided relief that allowed companies to make a policy election as to whether they treat COVID-19 related lease amendments as a provision included in the pre-concession arrangement, and therefore, not a lease modification, or to treat the lease amendment as a modification. In order to be considered COVID-19 related, cash flows must have been substantially the same or less than those prior to the concession. For COVID-19 relief qualified changes, there are two methods to potentially account for such rent deferrals or abatements under the relief, (1) as if the changes were originally contemplated in the lease contract or (2) as if the deferred payments are variable lease payments contained in the lease contract. For all other lease changes that did not qualify for FASB relief, the Company would be required to apply modification accounting including assessing classification under ASC 842.

Some, but not all of the Company's lease modifications may have qualified for the FASB relief. In accordance with the relief provisions, instead of treating these qualifying leases as modifications, the Company had elected to treat the modifications as if previously contained in the lease and recast rents receivable prospectively (if necessary). Under that accounting, for modifications that were deferrals only, there would have been no impact on overall rental revenue and for any abatement amounts that reduced total rent to be received, the impact would have been recognized ratably over the remaining life of the lease.

For leases that did not qualify for this relief, the Company applied modification accounting and determined that there were no changes in the current classification of its leases impacted by negotiations with its tenants.

Revenue Recognition

The Company's revenues, which are derived primarily from lease contracts, include rents that each tenant pays in accordance with the terms of each lease reported on a straight-line basis over the initial term of the lease. As of September 30, 2023, these leases had a weighted-average remaining lease term of 6.6 years. Because many of the Company's leases provide for rental increases at specified intervals, straight-line basis accounting requires that the Company record a receivable for, and include in revenue from tenants, unbilled rent receivables that the Company will receive if the tenant makes all rent payments required through the expiration of the initial term of the lease. When the Company acquires a property, the acquisition date is considered to be the commencement date for purposes of this calculation. For new leases after acquisition, the commencement date is considered to be the date the tenant takes control of the space. For lease modifications, the commencement date is considered to be the date the lease modification is executed. The Company defers the revenue related to lease payments received from tenants in advance of their due dates. Pursuant to certain of the Company's lease agreements, tenants are required to reimburse the Company for certain property operating expenses (recorded in total revenue from tenants), in addition to paying base rent, whereas under certain other lease agreements, the tenants are directly responsible for all operating costs of the respective properties. To the extent such costs exceed the applicable tenant's base year, many but not all of the Company's leases require the tenant to pay its allocable share of increases in operating expenses, which may include common area maintenance costs, real estate taxes and insurance. Under ASC 842, the Company has elected to report combined lease and non-lease components in a single line "Revenue from tenants." For expenses paid directly by the tenant, under both ASC 842 and 840, the Company has reflected them on a net basis.

The Company continually reviews receivables related to rent and unbilled rents receivable and determines collectability by taking into consideration the tenant's payment history, the financial condition of the tenant, business conditions in the industry in which the tenant operates and economic conditions in the area in which the property is located. Under the leasing standard, the Company is required to assess, based on credit risk, if it is probable that the Company will collect virtually all of the lease payments at the lease commencement date and it must continue to reassess collectability periodically thereafter based on new facts and circumstances affecting the credit risk of the tenant. In fiscal years ended December 31, 2022, 2021 and 2020, respectively, this assessment included consideration of the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Company's tenant's ability to pay rents in accordance with their contracts. Partial reserves, or the ability to assume partial recovery are no longer permitted. If the Company determines that it is probable that it will collect virtually all of the lease payments (base rent and additional rent), the lease will continue to be accounted for on an accrual basis (i.e. straight-line). However, if the Company determines it is not probable that it will collect virtually all of the lease payments, the lease will be accounted for on a cash basis and the straight-line rent receivable accrued will be written off, as well as any accounts receivable, where it was subsequently concluded that collection was not probable. Cost recoveries from tenants are included in operating revenue from tenants in accordance with current accounting rules, on the accompanying consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss in the period the related costs are incurred, as applicable.

In accordance with lease accounting rules the Company records uncollectible amounts as reductions in revenue from tenants. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, the Company had no such reductions in revenue which excludes rents from tenants on a cash basis not collected.

Accounting for LeasesLessor Accounting*

In accordance with the lease accounting standard, all leases as lessor prior to adoption were accounted for as operating leases. The Company evaluates new leases originated after the adoption date (by the Company or by a predecessor lessor/owner) pursuant to the new guidance where a lease for some or all of a building is classified by a lessor as a sales-type lease if the significant risks and rewards of ownership reside with the tenant. This situation is met if, among other things, there is an automatic transfer of title during the lease, a bargain purchase option, the non-cancelable lease term is for more than major part of remaining economic useful life of the asset (e.g., equal to or greater than 75%), the present value of the minimum lease payments represents substantially all (e.g., equal to or greater than 90%) of the leased property's fair value at lease inception, or the asset so specialized in nature that it provides no alternative use to the lessor (and therefore would not provide any future value to the lessor) after the lease term. Further, such new leases are evaluated to consider whether they would be failed sale-leaseback transactions and accounted for as financing transactions by the lessor. For the three year period ended December 31, 2022, the Company did not have any leases as a lessor that would be considered as sales-type leases or financings under sale-leaseback rules. As of September 30, 2023 the Company did not have any leases as a lessor that would be considered as sales-type leases or financing under sales-leaseback rules.

As a lessor of real estate, the Company has elected, by class of underlying assets, to account for lease and non-lease components (such as tenant reimbursements of property operating expenses) as a single lease component as an operating lease because (a) the non-lease components have the same timing and pattern of transfer as the associated lease component; and (b) the lease component, if accounted for separately, would be classified as an operating lease. Additionally, only incremental direct leasing costs may be capitalized under the accounting guidance. Indirect leasing costs in connection with new or extended tenant leases, if any, are being expensed.

Lessee Accounting

For lessees, the accounting standard requires the application of a dual lease classification approach, classifying leases as either operating or finance leases based on the principle of whether or not the lease is effectively a financed purchase by the lessee. Lease expense for operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease, while lease expense for finance leases is recognized based on an effective interest method over the term of the lease. Also, lessees must recognize a right-of-use asset (“ROU”) and a lease liability for all leases with a term of greater than 12 months regardless of their classification. Further, certain transactions where at inception of the lease the buyer-lessor accounted for the transaction as a purchase of real estate and a new lease, may now be required to have symmetrical accounting to the seller-lessee if the transaction was not a qualified sale-leaseback and accounted for as a financing transaction. For additional information and disclosures related to the Company’s operating leases, see Note 8 - Commitments and Contingencies.

We are the lessee under a land lease which was previously classified as an operating lease prior to adoption of lease accounting and will continue to be classified as an operating lease under transition elections unless subsequently modified. This lease is reflected on the Company’s consolidated balance sheets and the rent expense is reflected on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-04, Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848). Topic 848 contains practical expedients for reference rate reform related activities that impact debt, leases, derivatives and other contracts. The guidance in Topic 848 is optional and may be elected over the period March 12, 2020 through June 30, 2022 as reference rate reform activities occur. During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company elected to apply the hedge accounting expedients related to (i) the assertion that the Company’s hedged forecasted transactions remain probable and (ii) the assessments of effectiveness for future LIBOR-indexed cash flows to assume that the index upon which future hedged transactions will be based matches the index on the corresponding derivatives. Application of these expedients preserves the presentation of the Company’s derivatives, which will be consistent with our past presentation. The Company has adopted this guidance as of June 30, 2023.

Note 3 — Real Estate Investments

There were no real estate assets acquired or liabilities assumed during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 or 2022. Also, there were no dispositions of real estate during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 or 2022.

Significant Tenants

As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, there were no tenants whose annualized rental income on a straight-line basis, based on leases commenced, represented greater than 10% of total annualized rental income for all portfolio properties on a straight-line basis.

Assets Held for Sale

During the quarter ended September 30, 2023, the Company entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell its 421 W. 54th Street - Hit Factory property for $4.5 million. On October 12, 2023 the Company sold the property for $4.5 million and realized net proceeds of $4.2 million.

When assets are identified by management as held for sale, the Company stops recognizing depreciation and amortization expense on the identified assets and estimates the sales price, net of costs to sell, of those assets. If the carrying amount of the assets classified as held for sale exceeds the estimated net sales price, the Company records an impairment charge equal to the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the Company's estimate of the net sales price of the assets.

As of September 30, 2023, the Company evaluated this asset for held for sale classification and determined that it qualified for held for sale treatment based on the Company's accounting policies. The sale of the asset is not considered a discontinued operation and, accordingly, the operating results of this property remain classified within continuing operations for all periods presented.

The Company recorded an impairment charge of $0.4 million and $0.5 million for the three and nine month period ended September 30, 2023, respectively, for this property as it was determined that the carrying value exceeded the Company's sales price of the asset, less the costs to sell the property as of September 30, 2023.

As of December 31, 2022, the Company did not have any properties that were classified as held for sale. The following table details the major classes of the assets associated with the property that the Company determined to be classified as held for sale as of September 30, 2023:

<sup>(3)</sup> Due to covenant breaches resulting in cash trap for this property, all cash generated from operating this property is being held in a segregated account, and the Company will not have access to the excess cash flows until the covenant breaches are cleared. As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, there were $3.6 million held in a cash management account, which is part of the Company's restricted cash on its consolidated balance sheet. As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, no cash was trapped related to this property. The Company signed a lease with a new tenant at this property in November 2021, and the tenant began occupying a portion of the leased space in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and is expected to occupy the remainder of the space in the first quarter of the year ending December 31, 2024, which will bring the occupancy to 100.0%.

Unamortized deferred financing costs are expensed when the associated debt is refinanced or repaid before maturity. Costs incurred in seeking financial transactions that do not close are expensed in the period in which it is determined that the financing will not close.

<sup>(6)</sup> Due to the loan maturity of April 2024, the Company is considering a multitude of options to repay or refinance this mortgage note payable prior to or on its maturity, including extending the term with the existing lender, which may require a partial repayment of the mortgage note, or refinancing with a new lender.

Collateral and Principal Payments

The Company is required to make payments of interest on its mortgage notes payable on a monthly basis.

Debt Covenants1140 Avenue of the Americas

The Company has breached both a debt service coverage provision and a reserve fund provision under its non-recourse mortgage secured by the 1140 Avenue of the Americas property in each of the last 13 quarters ended September 30, 2023. The principal amount of the loan was $99.0 million as of September 30, 2023. These breaches are not events of default, rather they require excess cash, if any, generated at the property (after paying operating costs, debt service and capital/tenant replacement reserves) to be held in a segregated account as additional collateral under the loan. The covenants for this loan may be cured if the Company satisfies the required debt service coverage ratio for two consecutive quarters, whereupon the additional collateral will be released. The Company can remain subject to this reserve requirement through maturity of the loan without further penalty or ramifications. As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022 the Company had $3.6 million in cash that is retained by the lender and maintained in restricted cash on the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of those dates.

8713 Fifth Avenue

The Company breached a debt service coverage ratio covenant under the non-recourse mortgage secured by 8713 Fifth Avenue in each of the last 13 quarters ended September 30, 2023. The principal amount for the loan was $10.0 million as of September 30, 2023. The breach of this covenant did not result in an event of default but rather triggered an excess cash flow sweep period that has been ongoing. The Company has the ability to avoid the excess cash flow sweep period by electing to fund a reserve in the amount of $125,000 of additional collateral in cash or as a letter of credit. As of the date of filing this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the Company had not yet determined whether it will do so. If the Company continues to not elect to fund the $125,000 additional collateral, then the excess flow sweep period would commence in such quarter and continue until the covenant breaches are cured in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement. Additionally, in the event that the debt service coverage ratio covenant remains in breach at or below the current level for two consecutive calendar quarters and the lender reasonably determines that such breach is due to the property not being prudently managed by the current manager, the lender has the right, but not the obligation, to require that the Company replace the current manager with a third party manager chosen by the Company. This property did not generate any excess cash since the breach occurred and thus no cash has ever been trapped related to this property. The Company signed a lease with a new tenant at this property in November 2021, and the tenant began occupying a portion of the leased space in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and is expected to occupy the remainder of the space in the first quarter of the year ending December 31, 2024, which will bring the occupancy to 100.0%.

Other Debt Covenants

The Company was in compliance with the remaining covenants under its other mortgage notes payable as of September 30, 2023 and, it continues to monitor compliance with those provisions. If the Company experiences additional lease terminations, due to tenant bankruptcies or otherwise, or tenants placed on a cash basis continue to not pay rent, it is possible that certain of the covenants on other loans may be breached and the Company may also become restricted from accessing excess cash flows from those properties. Similar to the loans discussed above, the Company's other mortgages also contain cash management provisions that are not considered events of default, and as such, acceleration of principal would only occur upon an event of default.

LIBOR Transition

The Company had a mortgage loan agreement and a related derivative agreement for a “pay-fixed” interest swap that had terms that were previously based on LIBOR. However, in March of 2022, effective with the 9 Times Square loan modification and the termination and replacement of the “pay-fixed” swaps, both the mortgage loan agreement and the current “pay-fixed” interest swaps are now based on the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR”).

Note 5 — Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company determines fair value based on quoted prices when available or through the use of alternative approaches, such as discounting the expected cash flows using market interest rates commensurate with the credit quality and duration of the instrument. This alternative approach also reflects the contractual terms of the instrument, as applicable, including the period to maturity, and may use observable market-based inputs, including interest rate curves and implied volatilities, and unobservable inputs, such as expected volatility. The guidance defines three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1* — Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date.
- Level 2* — Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset and liability or can be corroborated with observable market data for substantially the entire contractual term of the asset or liability.
- Level 3* — Unobservable inputs that reflect the entity’s own assumptions that market participants would use in the pricing of the asset or liability and are consequently not based on market activity, but rather through particular valuation techniques.

The determination of where an asset or liability falls in the hierarchy requires significant judgment and considers factors specific to the asset or liability. In instances where the determination of the fair value measurement is based on inputs from different levels of the fair value hierarchy, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the entire fair value measurement falls is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

Financial Instruments Measured at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis*Derivative Instruments*

The Company’s derivative instruments are measured at fair value on a recurring basis. Although the Company has determined that the majority of the inputs used to value its derivatives fall within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy, the credit valuation adjustments associated with this derivative utilize Level 3 inputs, such as estimates of current credit spreads to evaluate the likelihood of default by the Company and its counterparty. However, as of September 30, 2023, the Company has assessed the significance of the impact of the credit valuation adjustments on the overall valuation of its derivative positions and has determined that the credit valuation adjustments are not significant to the overall valuation of the Company’s derivatives. As a result, the Company has determined that its derivatives valuation in its entirety is classified in Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

The valuation of derivative instruments is determined using a discounted cash flow analysis on the expected cash flows of each derivative. This analysis reflects the contractual terms of the derivatives, including the period to maturity, as well as observable market-based inputs, including interest rate curves and implied volatilities. In addition, credit valuation adjustments are incorporated into the fair values to account for the Company’s potential nonperformance risk and the performance risk of the counterparties.

Note 6 — Derivatives and Hedging Activities
Risk Management Objective of Using Derivatives

The Company currently uses derivative financial instruments, including an interest rate swap, and may in the future use others, including options, floors and other interest rate derivative contracts, to hedge all or a portion of the interest rate risk associated with its borrowings. The principal objective of such arrangements is to minimize the risks and costs associated with the Company’s operating and financial structure as well as to hedge specific anticipated transactions. The Company does not intend to utilize derivatives for speculative or other purposes other than interest rate risk management. The use of derivative financial instruments carries certain risks, including the risk that the counterparties to these contractual arrangements are not able to perform under the agreements. To mitigate this risk, the Company endeavors to only enter into derivative financial instruments with counterparties with high credit ratings and with major financial institutions with which the Company and its affiliates may also have other financial relationships. The Company does not anticipate that any of the counterparties will fail to meet their obligations.

The table below presents the fair value of the Company’s derivative financial instruments as well as their classification on the Company’s consolidated balance sheets as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022.

Cash Flow Hedges of Interest Rate Risk

The Company’s objectives in using interest rate derivatives are to add stability to interest expense and to manage its exposure to interest rate movements. To accomplish this objective, the Company primarily uses interest rate swaps and collars as part of its interest rate risk management strategy. Interest rate swaps designated as cash flow hedges involve the receipt of variable-rate amounts from a counterparty in exchange for the Company making fixed-rate payments over the life of the agreements without exchange of the underlying notional amount. Interest rate collars designated as cash flow hedges involve the receipt of variable-rate amounts if interest rates rise above the cap strike rate on the contract and payments of variable-rate amounts if interest rates fall below the floor strike rate on the contract.

The changes in the fair value of derivatives designated and that qualify as cash flow hedges are recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income and are subsequently reclassified into earnings in the period that the hedged forecasted transaction affects earnings. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and year ended December 31, 2022, such derivatives were used to hedge the variable cash flows associated with variable-rate debt. In connection with the modification and partial pay down of the Company’s mortgage loan on its 9 Times Square property in March 2022, the Company terminated a $55.0 million notional, LIBOR based “pay-fixed” interest rate swap and replaced it with a $49.5 million notional, SOFR based “pay-fixed” interest rate swap. In connection with this termination/replacement of the swap derivatives, the Company reflected as a charge (associated with the reduced notional amount) of approximately $38,338 in Other Income (Expense) on the Company’s Statement of Operations for the six month period ended June 30, 2022. At the time of the modification a net carrying amount reflecting the amount paid and the off market value rolled into the new swap and remained in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income. The amount will be amortized into interest expense over the term of the hedged item. There was $12,187 of unamortized balance left as of September 30, 2023.

Amounts reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) related to derivatives will be reclassified to interest expense as interest payments are made on the Company’s variable-rate debt. During the next 12 months, the Company estimates that $0.8 million will be reclassified from other comprehensive income (loss) as a decrease to interest expense.

As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, the Company had the following derivatives that were designated as cash flow hedges of interest rate risk.

Class A Common Stock Issued to the Advisor - Side Letter and In Lieu of Cash for the Management Fee

In January 2023, the Advisor elected to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of cash in respect of its management fee for that month. The Company issued 31,407 shares of its Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) using the 10-day average price of $15.92 (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) which was greater than minimum price required by the NYSE rules. The Company has paid the Advisor in cash for the Advisor's management fees in subsequent months through October 2023.

In accordance with the Side Letter (as defined in Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements), the Advisor reinvested base management fees, aggregating approximately $0.5 million and $3.0 million in shares of the Company's Class A common stock in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively. As a result, the Company issued 5,672, 5,438, 4,848, 5,031, 5,924 and 5,924 shares (all adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) of its Class A common stock in February, March, April, May, June and July 2022, respectively, in connection with the monthly base management fee earned by the Advisor.

In each of August, September, October, November and December 2022, the Advisor elected to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of cash in respect of its management fee. The Company issued 15,586, 18,899, 18,285, 19,320 and 24,744 shares (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), respectively, using the 10-day average price of $32.08, $26.24, $27.36, $25.92 and $20.24 per share (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), respectively, which was greater than the minimum price required under NYSE rules. Advisor is not obligated to accept shares in lieu of cash for these fees and makes this election in its sole discretion.

For accounting purposes, the shares of the Company's Class A common stock issued in accordance with the Side Letter and the shares issued in lieu of cash for the management fee, as elected by the Advisor, were treated as issued using the closing price on date of issue. The related expenses are reflected as zero and $0.5 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and $1.3 million and $3.6 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively.

Class A Common Stock Issued to the Company's Independent Board of Directors

Equity Offerings*Class A Common Stock

On October 1, 2020, the Company entered into an Equity Distribution Agreement, pursuant to which the Company may, from time to time, offer, issue and sell to the public, through its sales agents, shares of Class A common stock having an aggregate offering price of up to $250.0 million in an “at the market” equity offering program (the “Common Stock ATM Program”). The Company’s ability to sell shares under its existing shelf registration statement, including under the Common Stock ATM Program, was limited to one third of the Company’s market capitalization or “public float” unless the aggregate value of its Class A Common Stock held by non-affiliates exceeds $75.0 million. Additionally, the shelf registration Statement covering sales under the Common Stock ATM Program expired on October 1, 2023.

In August 2022, Bellevue Capital Partners, LLC, (“Bellevue”), which is an entity that controls the Advisor, expressed a desire to invest additional capital in the Company. Although no written agreement was entered into, the Company’s board of directors authorized the issuance of up to 125,000 shares of the Company’s Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) for these purposes. During the three months ended September 30, 2022, the Company sold 79,114 shares of Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) to Bellevue, for gross proceeds of $2.0 million, before nominal commissions associated with the sale. These shares were issued to Bellevue through block trades executed under the Company’s Common Stock ATM Program. Bellevue may, from time to time at its discretion, purchase additional shares of Class A common stock from the Company through additional block trades. However, there is no assurance as to the number of shares of the Company’s Class A common stock, if any, that Bellevue may seek to purchase.

Stockholder Rights Plan

In May 2020, the Company announced that its board of directors had approved a stockholder rights plan, but did not take actions to declare a dividend for the plan to become effective. In August 2020, in connection with the listing of the Company’s shares on the NYSE and the related bifurcation of common stock into Class A and Class B common stock, the Company entered into an amended and restated rights agreement, which amended and restated the stockholders rights plan approved in May 2020 and declared a dividend payable in August 2020, of one Class A right for and on each share of Class A common stock and one Class B right for and on each share of Class B common stock, in each case, outstanding on the close of business on August 28, 2020 to the stockholders of record on that date. Each right entitles the registered holder to purchase from the Company one one-thousandth of a share of Series A Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Series A Preferred Stock”), of the Company at a price of $55.00 per one one-thousandth of a share of Series A Preferred Stock, represented by a right, subject to adjustment. The expiration date of these rights has subsequently been extended to August 18, 2025.

Distribution Reinvestment Plan

An amendment and restatement of the distribution reinvestment plan (the “A&R DRIP”) in connection with the listing of the Company’s shares on the NYSE became effective on August 28, 2020. The A&R DRIP allows stockholders who have elected to participate to have dividends paid with respect to all or a portion of their shares of Class A common stock and Class B common stock reinvested in additional shares of Class A common stock. Shares received by participants in the A&R DRIP will represent shares that are, at the election of the Company, either (i) acquired directly from the Company, which would issue new shares, at a price based on the average of the high and low sales prices of Class A common stock on the NYSE on the date of reinvestment, or (ii) acquired through open market purchases by the plan administrator at a price based on the weighted-average of the actual prices paid for all of the shares of Class A common stock purchased by the plan administrator with proceeds from reinvested dividends to participants for the related quarter, less a per share processing fee.

Shares issued by the Company pursuant to the A&R DRIP, if any, would be recorded within stockholders’ equity in the consolidated balance sheets in the period dividends or other distributions are declared. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and year ended December 31, 2022, any DRIP transactions were settled through open market transactions and no shares were issued by the Company.

Non-Controlling Interest

Following the end of the performance period, which ended on August 18, 2023, as required under the 2020 OPP the compensation committee of the board of directors of the Company determined that none of the 501,605 of the LTIP Units subject to the 2020 OPP had been earned, and these LTIP Units were thus automatically forfeited effective as of August 18, 2023. On that date, the Company reclassified $25.8 million of amounts reflected in non-controlling interest for these LTIP Units to additional paid in capital on its consolidated balance sheet and consolidated statement of changes in equity. Note 8 — Commitments and Contingencies*Lessee Arrangement - Ground Lease

The Company entered into a ground lease agreement in 2016 related to the acquisition of 1140 Avenue of the Americas under a leasehold interest arrangement and recorded an ROU asset and lease liability related to this lease upon adoption of ASU 2016-02 during the year ended December 31, 2019. The ground lease is considered an operating lease. In computing the lease liabilities, the Company discounts future lease payments at an estimated incremental borrowing rate at adoption or acquisition if later. The term of the Company's ground lease is significantly longer than the term of borrowings available to the Company on a fully-collateralized basis. The Company's estimate of the incremental borrowing rate required significant judgment.

As of September 30, 2023, the Company's ground lease had a weighted-average remaining lease term of 43.3 years and a discount rate of 8.6%. As of September 30, 2023, the Company's balance sheet includes an ROU asset and liability of $54.8 million and $54.7 million, respectively, which are included in operating lease right-of-use asset and operating lease liability, respectively, on the consolidated balance sheet. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company paid cash of $1.2 million and $3.6 million, respectively, for amounts included in the measurement of lease liabilities and recorded expense of $1.2 million and $3.6 million, respectively, on a straight-line basis in accordance with the standard. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, the Company paid cash of $1.2 million and $3.6 million, respectively, for amounts included in the measurement of lease liabilities and recorded expense of $1.2 million and $3.6 million, respectively, on a straight-line basis in accordance with the standard.

The lease expense is recorded in property operating expenses in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. The Company did not enter into any additional ground leases as lessee during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022.

Pursuant to the advisory agreement with the Advisor (as amended from time to time, the "Advisory Agreement"), the Advisor manages the Company's day-to-day operations. The initial term of the Advisory Agreement ends in July 2030 and will automatically renew for successive five-year terms unless either party gives written notice of its election not to renew at least 180 days prior to the then-applicable expiration date. The Company may only elect not to renew the Advisory Agreement on this basis with the prior approval of at least two-thirds of the Company's independent directors, and no change of control fee (as defined in the Advisory Agreement) is payable if the Company makes this election.

Asset Management Fees and Variable Management/Incentive FeesOverview*

The Company pays the Advisor a base asset management fee on the first business day of each month equal to (x) $0.5 million plus (y) a variable amount equal to (a) 1.25% of the equity proceeds received after November 16, 2018, divided by (b) 12. The Advisor elected to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of cash for the base management fee in January 2023 (see Note 7 — Stockholders Equity). Equity proceeds are defined as, with respect to any period, cumulative net proceeds of all common and preferred equity and equity-linked securities issued by the Company and its subsidiaries during the period, including: (i) any equity issued in exchange or conversion of exchangeable notes based on the stock price at the date of issuance and convertible equity; (ii) any other issuances of equity, including but not limited to units in the OP (excluding equity-based compensation but including issuances related to an acquisition, investment, joint-venture or partnership); and (iii) effective following the time the Company commences paying a dividend of at least $0.05 per share per annum to its stockholders, (which occurred in October 2020), any cumulative Core Earnings (as defined in the Advisory Agreement) in excess of cumulative distributions paid on the Company's common stock since November 16, 2018, the effective date of the most recent amendment and restatement of the Advisory Agreement.

The Advisory Agreement also entitles the Advisor to an incentive variable management fee. Currently and during the year ended December 31, 2021, the variable management fee is equal to (i) the product of (a) the diluted weighted-average outstanding shares of common stock for the calendar quarter (excluding any equity-based awards that are subject to performance metrics that are not currently achieved) multiplied by (b) 15.0% multiplied by (c) the excess of Core Earnings Per Adjusted Share for the previous three-month period in excess of $0.1458 (before any adjustment for the Reverse Stock Split), plus (ii) the product of (x) the diluted weighted-average outstanding shares of common stock for the calendar quarter (excluding any equity-based awards that are subject to performance metrics that are not currently achieved) multiplied by (y) 10.0% multiplied by (z) the excess of Core Earnings Per Adjusted Share for the previous three-month period in excess of $0.1944 (before any adjustment for the Reverse Stock Split). The variable management fee is payable quarterly in arrears in cash, shares of common stock, or a combination thereof, at the Advisor's election. No incentive variable management fees were earned during the three months ended September 30, 2023 or 2022.

The Company recorded expense of $1.5 million and $4.5 million for base asset management fees during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and $1.3 million and $4.1 million during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022. There were no variable management fees incurred in either of these periods. The management fees for the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and the nine months ended September 30, 2022 were paid partially with cash. The Advisor may elect to but is not obligated to accept shares in lieu of cash for these management fees and makes this election on a monthly basis. The management fees for both periods were paid as follows:

- The Company paid base management fees in cash of $1.5 million (for July, August and September 2023) in the three months ended September 30, 2023 and it paid $4.0 million (for February through September 2023) in the nine months ended September 30, 2023. In addition, the Advisor elected to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of cash in respect of its management fee for January 2023 and as a result, the Company issued 31,407 shares of its Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) using the 10-day average price of $15.92 (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split).
- The Company paid base management fees in cash of $0.5 million (for January 2022) in the three months ended March 31, 2022. Also, in accordance with the Side Letter, the Advisor was paid base management fees, aggregating approximately $0.5 million and $3.0 million in cash and the Advisor reinvested these fees in shares of the Company's Class A common stock in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively. As a result, the Company issued 5,672, 5,438, 4,848, 5,031, 5,924 and 5,924 shares (all adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) of its Class A common stock in February, March, April, May, June and July 2022, respectively, in connection with the monthly base management fee earned by the Advisor.
- In each of August, September, October, November and December 2022, the Advisor elected to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of cash in respect of its management fee. The Company issued 15,586, 18,899, 18,285, 19,320 and 24,744 shares (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), respectively. For the full year ended December 31, 2022 in connection with the monthly base management fee earned by the Advisor, an aggregate of 129,671 shares were issued (including those issued related to the Side Letter as noted above).

For accounting purposes, the shares of the Company's Class A common stock issued in accordance with the Side Letter and the shares issued in lieu of cash for the management fee to the Advisor for January 2023, as elected by the Advisor, are treated as issued using the closing price on date of issue and the related expense totaled $0.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and $1.3 million and $3.6 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively.

Property Management Fees

Pursuant to the Property Management and Leasing Agreement (the "PMA"), as most recently amended on November 16, 2018, except in certain cases where the Company contracts with a third party, the Company pays the Property Manager a property management fee equal to: (i) for non-hotel properties, 3.25% of gross revenues from the properties managed, plus market-based leasing commissions; and (ii) for hotel properties, a market-based fee based on a percentage of gross revenues. The term of the PMA is coterminous with the term of the Advisory Agreement.

Pursuant to the PMA, the Company reimburses the Property Manager for property-level expenses. These reimbursements are not limited in amount and may include reasonable salaries, bonuses, and benefits of individuals employed by the Property Manager, except for the salaries, bonuses, and benefits of individuals who also serve as one of the Company's executive officers or as an executive officer of the Property Manager or any of its affiliates. The Property Manager may also subcontract the performance of its property management and leasing services duties to third parties and pay all or a portion of its property management fee to the third parties with whom it contracts for these services.

On April 13, 2018, in connection with the loan for its 400 E. 67th Street - Laurel Condominium and 200 Riverside Boulevard properties, the Company entered into a new property management agreement with the Property Manager (the "April 2018 PMA") to manage the properties secured by the loan. With respect to these properties, the substantive terms of the April 2018 PMA are identical to the terms of the PMA, except that the property management fee for non-hotel properties is 4.0% of gross revenues from the properties managed, plus market-based leasing commissions. The April 2018 PMA has an initial term of one year that is automatically extended for an unlimited number of successive one-year terms at the end of each year unless any party gives 60 days' written notice to the other parties of its intention to terminate.

The termination fee will be payable to the Advisor if either the Company or the Advisor exercises the right to terminate the Advisory Agreement in connection with the consummation of the first change of control (as defined in the Advisory Agreement). The termination fee is equal to

- $15 million plus an amount equal to the product of

Note 11 — Equity-Based CompensationEquity PlansRestricted Share Plan

Prior to the Company listing its shares on the NYSE, the Company had an employee and director incentive restricted share plan (as amended, the “RSP”). The RSP provided for the automatic grant of the number of restricted shares equal to $30,000 divided by the then-current Estimated Per-Share NAV, which were made without any further approval by the Company’s board of directors or the stockholders, after initial election to the board of directors and after each annual stockholder meeting, with such restricted shares vesting annually over a five-year period following the grant date in increments of 20.0% per annum. The RSP also provided the Company with the ability to grant awards of restricted shares to the Company’s board of directors, officers and employees (if the Company ever has employees), employees of the Advisor and its affiliates, employees of entities that provide services to the Company, directors of the Advisor or of entities that provide services to the Company, certain consultants to the Company and the Advisor and its affiliates or to entities that provide services to the Company.

2020 Equity Plan

Effective at the time of the listing, the Company’s independent directors approved an equity plan for the Advisor (the “Advisor Plan”) and an equity plan for individuals (the “Individual Plan” and together with the Advisor Plan, the “2020 Equity Plan”). The Advisor Plan is substantially similar to the Individual Plan, except with respect to the eligible participants. Awards under the Individual Plan are open to the Company’s directors, officers and employees (if the Company ever has employees), employees, officers and directors of the Advisor and as a general matter, employees of affiliates of the Advisor that provide services to the Company. Awards under the Advisor Plan may only be granted to the Advisor and its affiliates (including any person to whom the Advisor subcontracts substantially all of responsibility for directing or performing the day-to-day business affairs of the Company).

The 2020 Equity Plan succeeded and replaced the then existing RSP. Following the effectiveness of the 2020 Equity Plan at the listing of its shares on the NYSE, no further awards have been or will be granted under the RSP; provided, however, any outstanding awards under the RSP, such as unvested restricted shares held by the Company’s independent directors, will remain in effect in accordance with their terms and the terms of the RSP, until all those awards are exercised, settled, forfeited, canceled, expired or otherwise terminated. The Company accounts for forfeitures when they occur. While the RSP provided only for awards of restricted shares, the 2020 Equity Plan has been expanded to also permit awards of restricted stock units, stock options, stock appreciation rights, stock awards, LTIP Units and other equity awards. In addition, the 2020 Equity Plan eliminates the “automatic grant” provisions of the RSP that dictated the terms and amount of the annual award of restricted shares to independent directors. Grants to independent directors are made in accordance with the Company’s new director compensation program, as described below under “—Director Compensation.” The 2020 Equity Plan has a term of 10 years, expiring August 18, 2030. The number of shares of the Company’s capital stock that may be issued or subject to awards under the 2020 Equity Plan, in the aggregate, is equal to 20.0% of the Company’s outstanding shares of Class A common stock on a fully diluted basis at any time. Shares subject to awards under the Individual Plan reduce the number of shares available for awards under the Advisor Plan on a one-for-one basis and vice versa.

Director Compensation

On August 18, 2020 the Company listed its shares of Class A common stock on the NYSE (the “Listing Date”), and effective on that date, the Company’s independent directors approved a change to the Company’s director compensation program. Starting with the annual award of restricted shares made in connection with the Company’s 2021 annual meeting of stockholders, the amount of the annual award was increased from $30,000 to $65,000. No other changes have been made to the Company’s director compensation program.

Restricted Shares

Restricted share awards entitle the recipient to receive shares of common stock from the Company under terms that provide for vesting over a specified period of time. Restricted shares may not, in general, be sold or otherwise transferred until restrictions are removed and the shares have vested. Holders of restricted shares receive cash dividends on the same basis as dividends paid on shares of common stock, if any, prior to the time that the restrictions on the restricted shares have lapsed and thereafter. Any dividends payable in shares of common stock are subject to the same restrictions as the underlying restricted shares.

In March 2022, the compensation committee delegated authority to the Company’s chief executive officer to award up to 25,000 restricted shares (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) to employees of the Advisor or its affiliates who are involved in providing services to the Company, including the Company's chief financial officer, subject to certain limits and restrictions imposed by the compensation committee. The compensation committee remains responsible for approving and administering all grants of awards to the Company's chief financial officer or any other executive officer of the Company, including any award of restricted shares recommended by the Company's chief executive officer. No awards under the 2020 Equity Plan may be made pursuant to this delegation of authority to anyone who is also a partner, member or equity owner of the parent of the Advisor. As of September 30, 2023 there have been no shares awarded to anyone who is also a partner, member or equity owner of the parent of the Advisor.

Restricted share awards that have been granted to the Company's directors provide for accelerated vesting of the portion of the unvested restricted shares scheduled to vest in the year of the recipient's voluntary termination or the failure to be re-elected to the Company's board of directors.

During the second quarter of the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company granted 13,734 and 3,228 restricted shares (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) to employees of the Advisor and the Company's board of directors respectively. The restricted shares granted to employees of the Advisor or its affiliates will vest in 25% increments on each of the first four anniversaries of the grant date. Except in connection with a change in control (as defined in the award agreement) of the Company, any unvested restricted shares will be forfeited if the holder's employment with the Advisor terminates for any reason. Upon a change in control of the Company, 50% of the unvested restricted shares will immediately vest and the remaining unvested restricted shares will be forfeited. In addition, during the third quarter of the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company issued 762 restricted shares to two former employees of the Advisor working as consultants to the Advisor which, for accounting purposes, the fair value of such grants was fully expensed during the third quarter of the year ended December 31, 2022.

In the quarter ended March 31, 2023, the Company issued 2,038 restricted shares (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) to a member of the Company's board of directors. During the quarter ended June 30, 2023 the Company issued 13 restricted shares to an employee of the advisor and its affiliates. In the quarter ended September 30, 2023, the Company issued 24,042 issued to the Company's the board of directors as part of the annual award of restricted shares by the Company to the board of directors. These restricted shares issued to the board of directors will vest in 20% increments on each of the first five anniversaries of the respective grant dates. Also, during the quarter ended September 30, 2023, several former employees of the advisor that were terminated, and as defined in the award agreement, forfeited a total 2,792 restricted shares.

The following table displays restricted share award activity during the nine months ended September 30, 2023:

Unvested, December 31, 2022	18,134	$ 90.16
Granted	26,093	$ 9.25
Vested	(5,917)	$ 83.65
Forfeitures	(2,792)	$ 94.08
Unvested, September 30, 2023	35,518	$ 31.50

As of September 30, 2023, the Company had $1.2 million of unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested restricted share awards granted and is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 3.5 years. Restricted share awards are expensed in accordance with the service period required. Compensation expense related to restricted share awards was approximately $0.1 million and $0.4 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, respectively, and $0.2 million and $0.3 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively. Compensation expense related to restricted share awards is recorded as equity-based compensation in the accompanying unaudited consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. Also, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, approximately $0.1 million of additional net amortization expense was recorded for the accelerated vesting of restricted shares of one employee of the Advisor and the forfeiture, new issuance and vesting of restricted shares of other former employees of the Advisor who are providing certain consulting services to the Advisor.

September 30, 2023
(Unaudited)

Multi-Year Outperformance Award2020 OPP*

On the Listing Date, the Company, the OP and the Advisor entered into the 2020 OPP pursuant to which a performance-based equity award was granted to the Advisor. The award was based on the recommendation of the Company's compensation consultant, and approved by the Company's independent directors, acting as a group.

Initially, the award under the 2020 OPP was in the form of a single LTIP Unit. On September 30, 2020, the 30th trading day following the Listing Date, in accordance with its terms, the single LTIP Unit automatically converted into 501,605 LTIP Units (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), the quotient of $50.0 million divided by $99.68 (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), representing the average closing price of one share of Class A common stock over the ten consecutive trading days immediately prior to September 30, 2020. This number of LTIP Units represented the maximum number of LTIP Units that could have been earned by the Advisor during a performance period which ended on August 18, 2023. The compensation committee of the board of directors of the Company determined that none of the 501,605 of the LTIP Units subject to the 2020 OPP had been earned under the performance measures.

For accounting purposes, July 19, 2020 was treated as the grant date (the "Grant Date"), because the Company's independent directors approved the 2020 OPP and the award made thereunder on that date. The Company engaged third party specialists, who used a Monte Carlo simulation, to calculate the fair value as of the date the single LTIP Unit converted (September 30, 2020), on which date the fair value was also fixed. The total fair value of the LTIP Units of $25.8 million was recorded over the requisite service period of 3.07 years beginning on the Grant Date and ending on the third anniversary of the Listing Date (August 18, 2023). As a result, during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company recorded equity-based compensation expense related to the LTIP Units of $1.1 million and $5.3 million, respectively, and $2.1 million and $6.3 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively. As of September 30, 2023, the total fair value of the LTIP Units has been amortized to expense and no future expense remains. Equity-based compensation expense related to the LTIP Units is recorded in equity-based compensation in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

The LTIP Units issued pursuant to the 2020 OPP could potentially have been earned by the Advisor during a performance period which ended on August 18, 2023. The compensation committee of the board of directors of the Company determined that none of the 501,605 of the LTIP Units subject to the 2020 OPP had been earned under the performance measures. These LTIP Units were thus automatically forfeited effective as of August 18, 2023, without the payment of any consideration by the Company or the OP. On that date, the Company reclassified amounts reflected in non-controlling interest for these LTIP Units to additional paid in capital on its consolidated balance sheet and consolidated statement of equity.

LTIP Units/Distributions/Redemption

The rights of the Advisor as the holder of the LTIP Units were governed by the terms of the LTIP Units set forth in the agreement of limited partnership of the OP. Holders of LTIP Units were entitled to distributions on the LTIP Units equal to 10% of the distributions made per Class A Unit (other than distributions of sale proceeds) until if, and when, the LTIP Units were earned. Distributions paid on a Class A Unit were equal to dividends paid on a share of Class A common stock and were not subject to forfeiture, even though the LTIP Units were not earned and have been forfeited. If the LTIP Units had been earned, the Advisor would have been entitled to a priority catch-up distribution on each earned LTIP Unit equal to 90% of the aggregate distributions paid on Class A Units during the applicable performance period. Any LTIP Units that were earned would have become entitled to receive the same distributions paid on the Class A Units. If the Advisor's capital account with respect to an earned LTIP Unit had been equal to the capital account balance of a Class A Unit, the Advisor, as the holder of the earned LTIP Unit, in its sole discretion, would have been entitled to convert the LTIP Unit into a Class A Unit, which would have in turn been redeemed on a one-for-one basis for, at the Company's election, a share of Class A common stock or the cash equivalent thereof. Through the six months ended June 30, 2022 we paid dividends to our common stockholders at our current annual rate of $3.20 per share of Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), or $0.80 per share (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) on a quarterly basis. Subsequently, the board decided not to declare any further dividends. There is no assurance as to when or if the board will declare future dividends or the amount of any future dividends that may be declared. Because the LTIP Units only receive distributions when the Class A common stock receives dividends, no distributions have been paid since the quarter ended March 31, 2022.

For the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022 and nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company did not pay distributions on the LTIP Units and during the nine months ended September 30, 2022, the Company paid $80,000 of

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

September 30, 2023

(Unaudited)

distributions on the LTIP units. As discussed above, the LTIP Units were automatically forfeited effective as of August 18, 2023, without the payment of any consideration by the Company or the OP.

Performance Measures

As indicated above, on November 7, 2023, following the end of the performance period that expired on August 18, 2023, the compensation committee of the Company's board of directors determined that none of the 501,605 LTIP Units under the 2020 OPP had been earned. These LTIP Units were thus automatically forfeited effective as of August 18, 2023, without the payment of any consideration by the Company or the OP.

With respect to one-half of the LTIP Units granted under the 2020 OPP, the number of LTIP Units that could have potentially become earned was determined as of the last day of the performance period based on the Company's achievement of absolute total stockholder return ("TSR") levels as shown in the table below.

Performance Level	Absolute TSR		Percentage of LTIP Units Earned
Below Threshold	Less than	12%	0 %
Threshold		12%	25 %
Target		18 %	50 %
Maximum		24 % or higher	100 %

If the Company's absolute TSR was more than 12% but less than 18%, or more than 18% but less than 24%, the percentage of the Absolute TSR LTIP Units that would have been earned would have been determined using linear interpolation as between those tiers, respectively.

With respect to the remaining one-half of the LTIP Units granted under the 2020 OPP, the number of LTIP Units that could have potentially become earned was determined as of the last day of the performance period base on the difference (expressed in terms of basis points, whether positive or negative, as shown in the table below) between the Company's absolute TSR on the last day of the performance period relative to the average TSR of a peer group consisting of Empire State Realty Trust, Inc., Franklin Street Properties Corp., Paramount Group, Inc. and Clipper Realty Inc. as of the last day of the performance period.

Performance Level	Relative TSR Excess		Percentage of LTIP Units Earned
Below Threshold	Less than	-600 basis points	0 %
Threshold		-600 basis points	25 %
Target		0 basis points	50 %
Maximum		+600 basis points	100 %

If the relative TSR excess was between -600 basis points and zero basis points, or between zero basis points and +600 basis points, the number of LTIP Units that would have been earned would have been determined using linear interpolation as between those tiers, respectively.

Other Share-Based Compensation

The Company may issue Class A common stock in lieu of cash to pay fees earned by the Company's board of directors at the respective director's election. There are no restrictions on the shares issued. During the three months ended March 31, 2022, the Company's independent board of directors made an election to receive stock in lieu of cash for board services rendered during the fourth quarter of the year ended December 31, 2021 and accordingly, the expense was recorded in the fourth quarter of the year ended December 31, 2021. Also, during the three months ended June 30, 2022, the Company's independent board of directors made an election to receive stock in lieu of cash for board services rendered during the first quarter of the year ended December 31, 2022 and accordingly, the expense was recorded in the first quarter of the year ended December 31, 2022. As a result, the Company issued 649 and 606 shares of its Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) to the Company's independent board of directors in the first and second quarters of the year ended December 31, 2022, respectively, relating to services rendered and expenses recorded in the year ended December 31, 2021 and quarter ended March 31, 2022, respectively. There were no shares of common stock issued in lieu of cash during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Note 12 — Income Taxes

On December 30, 2022, the Company announced that it was changing its business strategy by expanding the scope of the assets and businesses the Company may own and operate. By investing in other asset types, the Company may generate income that does not otherwise constitute income that qualifies for purposes of qualifying as a REIT. As a result, on January 9, 2023, the Company's board of directors authorized the termination of the Company's REIT election which became effective as of January 1, 2023. Historically, effective with the taxable year ended December 31, 2014 through December 31, 2022, the Company had elected to be taxed as a REIT.

The Company is subject to U.S. federal, state and local income taxes. For deferred items, the Company records net deferred tax assets to the extent the Company believes these assets will more likely than not be realized. Because of the Company's recent operating history of taxable losses and the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on the results of operations, the Company is not able to conclude that it is more likely than not it will realize the future benefit of its deferred tax assets; thus the Company has provided a 100% valuation allowance as of September 30, 2023 and as of December 31, 2022. If and when the Company believes it is more likely than not that it will recover its deferred tax assets, the Company will reverse the valuation allowance as an income tax benefit in its consolidated statements of comprehensive income (loss).

The effective tax rate was zero for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022. The Company expects to have a taxable loss for federal, state and local income taxes for the year ending December 31, 2023. Accordingly, the Company has recorded no income tax expense (after considering changes in the valuation allowance) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023. The Company remains in a net deferred tax asset position with a full valuation allowance as of both September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022. As of September 30, 2023, the Company had no material uncertain tax positions.

Note 13 — Net Loss Per Share

The following is a summary of the basic and diluted net loss per share computation for the periods presented:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2023	2022	2023	2022
(In thousands, except share and per share data)
Net loss attributable to common stockholders (in thousands)	$ (9,390)	$ (11,074)	$ (32,047)	$ (35,787)
Adjustments to net loss attributable to common stockholders	—	—	—	(80)
Adjusted net loss attributable to common stockholders	$ (9,390)	$ (11,074)	$ (32,047)	$ (35,867)
Weighted average shares outstanding — Basic and Diluted	2,288,683	1,728,540 <sup>(1)</sup>	2,205,702	1,690,311 <sup>(1)</sup>

Under current authoritative guidance for determining earnings per share, all unvested share-based payment awards that contain non-forfeitable rights to distributions are considered to be participating securities and therefore are included in the computation of earnings per share under the two-class method. The two-class method is an earnings allocation formula that determines earnings per share for each class of common shares and participating security according to dividends declared (or accumulated) and participation rights in undistributed earnings. The Company's unvested restricted shares, Class A Units and unearned LTIP Units contain rights to receive distributions considered to be non-forfeitable, except in certain limited circumstances, and therefore the Company applies the two-class method of computing earnings per share. The calculation of earnings per share above adjusts net loss to exclude the distributions to the unvested restricted shares, Class A Units and the unearned LTIP Units that were issued under the 2020 OPP from the numerator. On July 1, 2022, the Company announced that it suspended its policy regarding dividends paid on its Class A common stock, beginning with the dividend that would have been payable for the quarter ended June 30, 2022. Accordingly, there is no adjustment for the three month period ended September 30, 2022 and the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2023 relating to distributions to LTIP Units which are paid in arrears. Accordingly, since the LTIP Units only receive distributions when the Class A common stock receives dividends there were no distributions to the LTIP Units beginning with the distribution that would have been payable for the quarter ended June 30, 2022 and quarterly periods thereafter.

AMERICAN STRATEGIC INVESTMENT CO.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2023
(Unaudited)

Diluted net loss per share assumes the conversion of all Class A common stock share equivalents into an equivalent number of shares of Class A common stock, unless the effect is anti-dilutive. The Company considers unvested restricted shares, Class A Units and unvested LTIP Units to be common share equivalents. The following table shows common share equivalents on a weighted average basis that were excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share as their effect would have been antidilutive for the periods presented.

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2023	2022	2023	2022
Unvested restricted shares <sup>(1)</sup>	34,889	19,368	23,851	12,194
Total weighted-average anti-dilutive common share equivalents	296,596	520,973	444,611	513,799

<sup>(1)</sup> There were 35,518 and 18,134 unvested restricted shares outstanding as of September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split).

<sup>(2)</sup> There were no LTIP units outstanding as of September 30, 2023 and there were 501,605 LTIP Units outstanding (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) as of September 30, 2022 (see Note 11 — Equity-Based Compensation for additional information).

If dilutive, conditionally issuable shares relating to the 2020 OPP award (see Note 11 — Equity-Based Compensation for additional information) would be included, as applicable, in the computation of fully diluted EPS on a weighted-average basis for and nine month periods ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, based on shares that would be issued if the applicable balance sheet date was the end of the measurement period. No LTIP Unit share equivalents were included in the computation for nine month periods ended September 30, 2023 because either or both (i) no LTIP Units would have been earned based on the trading price of Class A common stock including any cumulative dividends paid (since inception of the 2020 OPP) at September 30, 2023 and 2022 or (ii) the Company recorded a net loss to common stockholders for all periods presented and any shares conditionally issuable under the LTIPs would be anti-dilutive.

Note 14 — Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the filing of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and determined that there have not been any events that have occurred that would require adjustments to disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.

Tender Offer by Affiliates of the Advisor

On September 27, 2023, Bellevue Capital Partners, LLC announced a tender offer to purchase up to 350,000 shares of the Company's Class A common stock, at a purchase price equal to $10.25 per share. The tender offer expired on October 26, 2023 and 223,460 shares were tendered and accepted by Bellevue for a purchase price to Bellevue of an aggregate of approximately $2.3 million, less any fees, expenses, or taxes withheld for the fourth quarter of 2023.

Hit Factory Disposition

On October 12, 2023 the Company sold its property at 421 W. 54th street (the "Hit Factory") for a contract sales price of $4.5 million. This property was classified as held-for-sale on the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2023. The sole tenant terminated its lease early and vacated the space during the quarter ended June 30, 2018. This Company incurred approximately $0.2 million of property operating expenses on this property in the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Overview

We are an externally managed company that owns a portfolio of commercial real estate located within the five boroughs of New York City, primarily Manhattan. Our real estate assets consist of office properties and certain real estate assets that accompany office properties, including retail spaces and amenities and parking garages that do not accompany office spaces. During the quarter ended September 30, 2021, we also began operating Innovate NYC at our 1140 Avenue of Americas property, a co-working company that is specific to this property only, that offers move-in ready private offices, virtual offices, and meeting space on bespoke terms to clients. As of September 30, 2023, we owned eight properties consisting of 1.2 million rentable square feet, acquired for an aggregate purchase price of $790.7 million with an overall occupancy of 85.1%. On October 12, 2023 the Company sold its property at 421 W. 54th street (the “Hit Factory”) for a contract sales price of $4.5 million. This property was classified as held-for-sale on the Company’s consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2023. The sole tenant terminated its lease early and vacated the space during the quarter ended June 30, 2018.

On December 30, 2022, we announced that we were changing our business strategy by expanding the scope of the assets and businesses we may own and operate. By investing in other asset types, we may generate income that does not otherwise constitute income that qualifies for purposes of qualifying as a REIT. As a result, on January 9, 2023, our board of directors authorized termination of our REIT election which became effective as of January 1, 2023. Historically, we had filed an election to be taxed as a REIT commencing with our taxable year ended December 31, 2014, which remained in effect with respect to each subsequent taxable year ending on or before the year ended December 31, 2022.

On January 11, 2023 we effected a 1-for-8 reverse stock split that was previously approved by our board, resulting in each outstanding share of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, (the “Class A common stock”) being converted into 0.125 shares of common stock, with no fractional shares being issued (the “Reverse Stock Split”). For additional information, see Note 7 — Stockholders’ Equity to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Also, effective January 19, 2023, we amended our charter to change our name to “American Strategic Investment Co.” from “New York City REIT, Inc.” Trading of our Class A common stock on the New York Stock Exchange under the new name began on January 20, 2023 under the existing trading symbol “NYC.” Shares of our Class A common stock were first listed on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) on August 18, 2020. Also, on February 22, 2023, we completed a non-transferable rights offering raising gross proceeds of $5.0 million (the “Rights Offering”). As a result, we issued 386,100 shares of our Class A common stock subscribed for in the Rights Offering on February 27, 2023.

Substantially all of our business is conducted through the OP and its wholly owned subsidiaries. New York City Advisors, LLC (our “Advisor”) manages our day-to-day business with the assistance of New York City Properties, LLC (our “Property Manager”). Our Advisor and Property Manager are under common control with AR Global Investments, LLC (“AR Global”) and these related parties receive compensation and fees for providing services to us. We also reimburse these entities for certain expenses they incur in providing these services to us.

Management Update on the Impacts of the COVID-19 Pandemic

New York City, where all of our properties are located, has been among the hardest hit locations in the country and fully reopened from relevant restrictions and lockdowns on March 7, 2022. The pace of recovery in the New York City office market from the COVID-19 pandemic continues to be challenged as leasing and occupancy trends for the broader market have slowed, leading political, community, and business leaders to propose repositioning plans for many New York City office assets that are experiencing high vacancy rates.

The negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic during 2020 and 2021 caused certain of our tenants to be unable to make rent payments to us timely, or at all. As a result, we did experience delays in rent collections during 2021, however, with the exception of one minor lease deferral during the quarter of the ended September 30, 2022, our tenants have paid rent. During the quarter ended September 30, 2023 we had one tenant lease expire by its terms. During the period ended June 30, 2023, one tenant elected to terminate its lease early effective in October of 2023, which was unrelated to the impact of COVID-19. Also, during the quarter ended September 30, 2023 we had a new lease that commenced.

Beginning in the third and fourth quarters of 2020, the operating results at 1140 Avenue of the Americas, 9 Times Square, 400 E. 67th Street - Laurel Condominium/200 Riverside Boulevard Garage and 8713 Fifth Avenue properties were negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic causing cash trap events under the non-recourse mortgages for those properties to be triggered. Thus, we were not able to use excess cash flow, if any, from the properties while the cash trap events were active, to fund operating expenses at our other properties and other capital requirements. As of September 30, 2023 two of our mortgages aggregating $109.0 million in principal amount remained in a cash trap event, all as described in detail further below in the Liquidity and Capital Resources section.

We took several steps to mitigate the impact of the pandemic on our business and in some cases, in 2020 and 2021, we executed different types of lease amendments, including rent deferrals and abatements and, in some cases, extensions to the term of the leases. There were no new deferrals or abatements during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Our portfolio is primarily comprised of office and retail tenants. We collected 100% of original cash rent due across our entire portfolio for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2023. We collected 100% of the original cash rent due across our entire portfolio in the first and second quarters 2023 and for all of 2022. There can be no assurance, however, that tenants will continue to pay all cash rent due. The cash rent collections for the third quarter of 2023 includes cash receipts through October 31, 2023 and includes cash received in October for cash rent due in the quarter ended September 30, 2023. Cash received in October 2023 is not, however, included in cash and cash equivalents on our September 30, 2023 consolidated balance sheet and was immaterial in amount for the quarter ended September 30, 2023. “Original cash rent” refers to contractual rents on a cash basis due from tenants as stipulated in their originally executed lease agreement at inception or as amended, prior to any rent deferral agreement. We calculate “original cash rent collections” by comparing the total amount of rent collected during the period to the original cash rent due. Total rent collected during the period includes both original cash rent due and payments made by tenants pursuant to rent deferral agreements.

Our cash rent collections may not be indicative of any future period. Moreover, there is no assurance that we will be able to collect the cash rent that is due in future months including the remaining amounts deferred from 2021 or the deferred 2022 rent amounts that we expect to receive during the remainder of 2023 under deferral agreements we have entered into with our tenants.

Significant Accounting Estimates and Critical Accounting Policies

For a discussion about our significant accounting estimates and critical accounting policies, see the “Significant Accounting Estimates and Critical Accounting Policies” section of our 2022 Annual Report on Form 10-K. Except for those required by new accounting pronouncements discussed below, there have been no material changes from these significant accounting estimates and critical accounting policies.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

See Note 2 — Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements to our consolidated financial statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further discussion.

<sup>(2)</sup> In January 2021, our former tenant, Knotel, filed for bankruptcy and the leases with this tenant were terminated effective January 31, 2021, which impacted two of our properties, 9 Times Square and 123 William Street. The Knotel termination and new leasing activity since that time has resulted in occupancy at the 9 Times Square property of 68.0% as of September 30, 2023, as compared to 61.9% and 59.3% as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. After taking into account the Knotel termination and new leasing activity since that time at the 123 William Street property, occupancy as of September 30, 2023, was 92.0%, as compared to 91.4% and 90.8% as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively.

<sup>(3)</sup> Occupancy at 1140 Avenue of the Americas increased 3.7% for the period ended September 30, 2023 as compared to December 31, 2022. The increase was due to two new leases signed in the quarter ended March 31, 2023.

<sup>(4)</sup> The Company signed a lease with a new tenant at this property in November 2021, and the new began occupying a portion of the leased space in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and is expected to occupy the remainder of the space in the first quarter of 2024, which will bring the occupancy to 100.0%.

Results of Operations

As of September 30, 2023 and 2022, our overall portfolio occupancy was 85.1% and 84.5%, respectively. The following table is a summary of our quarterly leasing activity during the first nine months of 2023. There were no replacement leases during the year ended December 31, 2022 and the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

	Q1 2023	Q2 2023	Q3 2023
Leasing activity:

<sup>(1)</sup> Represents the GAAP basis annualized straight-line rent that is recognized over the term on the respective leases, which includes free rent, periodic rent increases, and excludes recoveries.

Comparison of Three Months Ended September 30, 2023 and 2022

As of September 30, 2023, we owned eight properties, all of which were acquired prior to January 1, 2022. Our results of operations for the three months ended September 30, 2023 as compared to the three months ended September 30, 2022 primarily reflect changes due to leasing activity and occupancy.

Net Loss Attributable to Common Stockholders

Net loss attributable to common stockholders was $9.4 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2023, as compared to $11.1 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2022. The change in net loss income attributable to common stockholders is discussed in detail for each line item of the consolidated statements of operations in the sections that follow.

Revenue from Tenants

Revenue from tenants increased to $16.0 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 as compared to $15.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022. The increase in revenue for the three month period September 30, 2023 was primarily due to increased occupancy compared to September 30, 2022.

Asset and Property Management Fees to Related Parties

We incurred $1.9 million and $1.7 million in fees for asset and property management services paid to our Advisor and Property Manager for the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. See Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements to our consolidated financial statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for more information on fees incurred from our Advisor and Property Manager. The Advisor elected to receive shares in lieu of cash for the January 2023 base management fee, however the remainder of the management fees in the first, second and third quarters of 2023 were paid in cash. Also, in the quarter ended September 30, 2022, in accordance with the side letter entered into with the Advisor (the "Side Letter"), the Advisor was paid base management fees, aggregating $0.5 million (for July of 2022) in cash and reinvested these fees, in shares of our Class A common stock and the Advisor elected to receive shares in lieu of cash for the August and September 2022 base management fees. For accounting purposes, the shares issued in the quarter ended September 30, 2022 were issued using the closing price on date of issue and the related expense was $1.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022.

Property Operating Expenses

Property operating expenses decreased to $8.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 compared to $8.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022. This was primarily due to a decrease in utility and maintenance expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2023.

Impairments of Real Estate Investments

During the three months ended September 30, 2023, we recorded impairment charges of $0.4 million related to the 421 W. 54th Street - Hit Factory property as it was determined that the carrying value exceeded the Company's sales price of the asset, less the costs to sell the property as of September 30, 2023. There were no impairment charges during the three month period ending September 30, 2022.

Equity-Based Compensation

Equity-based compensation decreased $1.0 million to $1.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 compared to $2.3 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022. These amounts are comprised of restricted share amortization expense and the amortization of our multi-year outperformance award granted to the Advisor in August 2020 (the "2020 OPP"). The expense from the 2020 OPP is generally consistent period over period, however the third quarter of 2023 only includes expense through the end of the performance period, August 18, 2023. The increase also relates to higher restricted share amortization expense due to additional restricted shares issued to our board of directors in June 2022. See Note 11 — Equity-Based Compensation to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further details on the 2020 OPP and restricted shares of common stock.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses decreased to $1.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 from $2.4 million for three months ended September 30, 2022. The decrease in general and administrative expenses was primarily attributable to a change in estimate of our New York annual capital base tax accrual of $0.2 million. This tax expense was not incurred in the three months ended September 30, 2022, when we were organized as a REIT. This change in estimate of the tax accrual occurred because of a change in valuation from cost basis to an estimated market value in the three month period ending September 30, 2023. In addition, during the three months ended September 30, 2023, we also incurred lower professional fees and legal fees.

Total reimbursement expenses for administrative and personnel services provided by the Advisor during the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022 were $0.8 million ($0.8 million related to salaries, wages, and benefits and none related to administrative and overhead expenses) and $0.9 million, all of which related to salaries, wages, and benefits.

Pursuant to our Advisory Agreement, reimbursement for administrative and overhead expenses and reimbursements for salaries, wages, and benefits are subject to annual limits of $2.6 million related to salaries, wages, and benefits and $0.4 million related to administrative and overhead expenses. See Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further details.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization expense decreased to $6.5 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023 as compared to $6.9 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022. The decrease was primarily due to a lower depreciable asset base between periods.

Interest Expense

Interest expense decreased to $4.7 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023, compared to $4.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2022. During the three months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, our weighted-average outstanding debt balance was $399.5 million, and had a weighted-average effective interest rate of 4.35% in each period. All of our mortgage debt is either fixed rate or swapped to fixed rate and, accordingly, we have not currently been affected by rising interest rates.

Comparison of Nine Months Ended September 30, 2023 and 2022

As of September 30, 2023, we owned eight properties, all of which were acquired prior to January 1, 2021. Changes in our results of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2022 was primarily due to an increase in occupancy which increased rental revenue for previously vacant spaces. On October 12, 2023 the Company sold the Hit Factory for a contract sales price of $4.5 million. This property was classified as held-for-sale on the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2023. The sole tenant terminated its lease early and vacated the space during the quarter ended June 30, 2018. The sale of this vacant property eliminated annual carrying costs of approximately $0.3 million associated with owning the property. For more details please see Note 14 — Subsequent Events.

Net Loss Attributable to Common Stockholders

Net loss attributable to common stockholders was $32.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, as compared to $35.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. The change in net loss income attributable to common stockholders is discussed in detail for each line item of the consolidated statements of operations in the sections that follow.

Revenue from Tenants

Revenue from tenants decreased to $47.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, from $47.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. The decrease was primarily due to percentage rent agreements naturally expiring during the quarter ended June 30, 2022 that resulted in a decrease in revenue, as well as a decrease in our real estate tax reimbursement billings. The percentage rent arrangements that we entered into provided us with an opportunity to capture more original cash rent due as New York City began to rebound from the COVID-19 pandemic. These percentage rent deals remained in place until July 2022, when we entered into new leases with the tenant that will expire in June of 2037.

Asset and Property Management Fees to Related Parties

Fees for asset and property management services paid to our Advisor and Property Manager were $5.8 million and $5.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively. See Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements to our consolidated financial statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for more information on fees incurred from our Advisor and Property Manager. The Advisor elected to receive shares in lieu of cash for the January 2023 base management fee, however the remainder of the management fees in the nine months ended September 30, 2023 were paid in cash. Also, in the nine months ended September 30, 2022, in accordance with the Side Letter, the Advisor was paid base management fees, aggregating $3.0 million in cash and reinvested these fees in shares of the Company's Class A common stock and elected to receive the August and September 2022 base management fees in Class A common stock in the nine months ended September 30, 2022. For accounting purposes these shares are issued using the closing price on date of issuance and the related expense was $0.5 million and $4.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Property Operating Expenses

Property operating expenses decreased $0.3 million to $25.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 from $25.9 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. This was primarily due to lower repairs and maintenance and utility expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

Impairments of Real Estate Investments

During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we recorded impairment charges of $0.4 million related to our 421 W. 54th Street - Hit Factory property. We entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell this property for $4.5 million during the third quarter of 2023. The sale closed on October 12, 2023. We evaluated this asset for held for sale classification and determined that it qualified for held for sale treatment based on our accounting policies. During the third quarter of 2023, we recorded impairment charges for this property because we determined that the carrying value exceeded the Company's sales price of the asset, less the costs to sell the property as of September 30, 2023. There were no impairment charges during the nine month period ending September 30, 2022.

Equity-Based Compensation

Equity-based compensation decreased to $5.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, as compared to $6.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. These amounts are comprised of restricted share amortization expense and the amortization of our multi-year outperformance award granted under the 2020 OPP. The expense from the 2020 OPP is generally consistent period over period, however, the third quarter of 2023 only includes expense through the end of the performance period, August 18, 2023. The decrease in equity-based compensation relates to higher restricted share amortization expense due to additional restricted shares issued to employees of the Advisor in April 2022 and additional restricted shares issued to our board of directors in June 2022, as well as a decrease in restricted share amortization expense related to the 2020 OPP due to the end of the performance period. See Note 11 — Equity-Based Compensation to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further details on the 2020 OPP and restricted shares of common stock.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses decreased $3.0 million to $7.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 compared to $10.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. The decrease was primarily due to lower proxy solicitation and related costs in the nine months ended September 30, 2023 as compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2022. During the nine months ended September 30, 2022 in connection with the annual meeting of stockholders and proxy contest we incurred overall higher legal and other costs of approximately $2.5 million, which were attributable to the portion of our 2022 proxy contest expenses. The decrease in expenses was also related to legal fees incurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 of approximately $0.4 million that were not related to the proxy, as well as a decrease in compensation expense related to salaries, wages and benefits of approximately $0.3 million (as described below).

Total reimbursement expenses for administrative and personnel services provided by the Advisor during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and September 30, 2022 were $2.7 million ($2.3 million were for salaries, wages, and benefits and $0.4 million related to administrative and overhead expenses) and $3.0 million ($2.6 million were for salaries, wages, and benefits and $0.4 million related to administrative and overhead expenses), respectively.

Pursuant to our Advisory Agreement, reimbursement for administrative and overhead expenses and reimbursements for salaries, wages, and benefits are subject to annual limits of $2.6 million related to salaries, wages, and benefits and $0.4 million related to administrative and overhead expenses. See Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further details.

Depreciation and Amortization

Depreciation and amortization expense decreased to $20.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, compared to $21.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. The decrease was primarily due to the write-off of in-place leases in second quarter of 2022 in relation to lease terminations during the quarter ended June 30, 2022.

Interest Expense

Interest expense remained approximately the same at $14.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, and for the nine months ended September 30, 2022. In the quarter ended March 31, 2022 there was a partial pay-down of the loan secured by 9 Times Square. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and 2022, our weighted average outstanding debt balance was $399.5 million and $400.7 million, respectively, and had a weighted-average effective interest rate of 4.35% in each period. All of our mortgage debt is fixed rate and, accordingly, we have not currently been affected by rising market interest rates.

Cash Flows from Operating Activities

The level of cash flows used in or provided by operating activities is affected by the restricted cash we are required to maintain, the timing of interest payments, the receipt of scheduled rent payments and the level of general, administrative and property operating expenses.

Net cash used in operating activities was $3.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 and was impacted primarily by a net loss of $32.0 million, adjusted for non-cash items of $28.0 million, including depreciation and amortization of tangible and intangible real estate assets, amortization of deferred financing costs, accretion/amortization of below market and above market lease liabilities and assets, equity-based compensation and management fees reinvested by the Advisor. Net cash provided by operating activities was also impacted by an increase in prepaid expenses and other assets of $1.7 million and an increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses associated with operating activities of $2.8 million, an increase in deferred revenue (prepaid rent) of $0.3 million and an increase in straight-line receivable of $0.8 million.

Net cash provided by operating activities was $3.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2022 and was impacted primarily by a net loss of $35.8 million, adjusted for non-cash items of $32.2 million, including depreciation and amortization of tangible and intangible real estate assets, amortization of deferred financing costs, accretion/amortization of below market and above market lease liabilities and assets, equity-based compensation and management fees reinvested by the Advisor. Net cash provided by operating activities was also impacted by a decrease in prepaid expenses and other assets of $1.1 million and an increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses associated with operating activities of $8.7 million, a decrease in deferred revenue (prepaid rent) of $0.1 million and an increase in straight-line receivable of $3.0 million.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities of $3.2 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 consisted of the funding of capital expenditures relating to tenant and building improvements at 9 Times Square, 123 William Street, 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue.

Net cash used in investing activities of $4.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2022 consisted of the funding of capital expenditures relating to tenant and building improvements at 123 William Street and 1140 Avenue of the Americas.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Net cash provided by financing activities was $4.0 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 due primarily to the net proceeds of $4.1 million from the Rights Offering.

Net cash used by financing activities was $6.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2022 related to payments on mortgage notes payable of $5.5 million and the payment of dividends on common stock of $2.7 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our principal demands for cash are to fund operating and administrative expenses, capital expenditures, tenant improvement and leasing commission costs related to our properties, our debt service obligations and, subject to capital availability, acquisitions. We did not make any new acquisitions or investments in the quarter ended September 30, 2023.

Cash, Cash Equivalents and Restricted Cash

As of September 30, 2023, we had cash and cash equivalents of $5.1 million as compared to $9.2 million as of December 31, 2022. The decrease in cash was mainly due to the funding of capital expenditures for building and tenant improvements at our 9 Times Square, 123 William Street, 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue properties. Under the guarantee of certain enumerated recourse liabilities of the borrower under one of our mortgage loans, we are required to maintain a minimum net worth in excess of $175.0 million and minimum liquid assets (i.e. cash and cash equivalents) of $10.0 million, which includes cash and cash equivalents and restricted cash, which totaled $13.0 million as of September 30, 2023.

We had restricted cash of $7.9 million as of September 30, 2023 as compared to $6.9 million as of December 31, 2022. Our restricted cash balance includes cash sweeps for 1140 Avenue of the Americas of $3.6 million as of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, and the remaining balance of restricted cash is comprised of various escrow accounts and other cash accounts with restricted uses. The increases result from the fact that a termination payment was received during the period ending June 30, 2023 that was required to be treated as restricted cash, and we were also required to deposit monies in an existing escrow account during the period ending September 30, 2023, which was also treated as restricted cash. We are able to use a portion of our restricted cash for certain property operating expenses and capital expenditures. For certain property operating expenses and capital expenditures specifically related to our 1140 Avenue of the Americas property, lender approval is required to use any of the cash that is held in restricted cash accounts resulting from the breach of covenants on the loan secured by that property (see below). As a result, some of the property operating expenses and capital expenditures that will be paid with restricted cash may reside in accounts payable and accrued expenses on our consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2023.

Segregated Cash Accounts - Loan Covenant Breaches

The negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic have caused and may continue to cause certain of our tenants to be unable to make rent payments to us timely, or at all, and could continue to have, an adverse effect on the amount of cash we receive from our operations and therefore our ability to fund operating expenses and other capital requirements. Beginning in the third and fourth quarters of 2020, the operating results at some of our properties, including our 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue properties, were negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic causing cash trap events under the non-recourse mortgages, where excess operating cash flow from the property, if any, after debt service was held in restricted cash as additional collateral for the loan, for those properties to be triggered. Thus, we were not able to use excess cash flow, if any, from these properties to fund operating expenses at our other properties and other capital requirements during the quarter ended September 30, 2023.

As of September 30, 2023, we are operating under two cash traps at both 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue, which together, represent 22% of the rentable square feet in our portfolio as of September 30, 2023. As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022, there was $3.6 million of cash maintained in a segregated and restricted cash account resulting from the breach of covenants on the loan secured by our 1140 Avenue of the Americas property. The remaining cash that is classified as restricted cash on the consolidated balance sheet are held in escrow accounts. As of September 30, 2023 our 8713 Fifth Avenue property has not generated excess cash after debt service and there is no related cash maintained in a segregated and restricted cash account for that property. We may not access the cash from the 1140 Avenue of the Americas property without lender approval unless and until the various breaches have been cured. Excess cash generated by the 1140 Avenue of the Americas property continues to be deposited in a separate cash management account until the borrower under the loan is able to comply with all of the applicable covenants.

Liquidity

We do not have any significant scheduled debt principal repayments due until April 2024 when the loan in the principal amount of $49.5 million and secured by Nine Times Square matures. We are presently evaluating our options to extend or refinance that loan. We believe that we will have sufficient cash available to us to meet our operating and capital requirements over the next year. We expect to fund our operating expenses and capital requirements over the next 12 months with cash on hand as of September 30, 2023 and the cash we believe we will generate from operations that are not otherwise subject to cash traps described herein.

In February 2023, we raised gross proceeds of $5.0 million ($4.1 million of net proceeds) from our Rights Offering, which entitled holders of rights to purchase 0.20130805 of a share of our Class A common stock for every right held at a subscription price of $12.95 per whole share. As a result, we issued 386,100 shares of our Class A common stock subscribed for in our Rights Offering on February 27, 2023. The net proceeds were used for general corporate purposes.

After the quarter ended, we sold the Hit Factory for a sales price of $4.5 million. The sale closed on October 12, 2023. We had classified this property as held-for-sale on our consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2023. For more details please see Note 14 — Subsequent Events. The proceeds from this sale will be available to fund our liquidity needs. We are also no longer responsible for paying the carrying costs of approximately $0.3 million annually on this property.

To further augment our liquidity, we may potentially be able to generate funds for these needs through the potential issuance or placement of unsecured debt or an offering of equity securities although there can be no assurance that a market will exist for either a debt or equity offering of our securities. We may also further dispose of properties, but presently do not have plans to do so. During the year ended December 31, 2022 and the three months ended March 31, 2023, we were also able to preserve cash through an arrangement with our Advisor. Specifically in each of August, September, October, November and December 2022, the Advisor elected to receive shares of Class A common stock in lieu of cash in respect of its management fee. We issued 15,586, 18,899, 18,285, 19,320 and 24,744 shares (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), respectively, in connection with this arrangement. Since February of 2023 the advisor has been paid its fees in cash. For the full year ended December 31, 2022 in connection with the monthly base management fee earned by the Advisor, an aggregate of 129,671 shares were issued (including those issued related to the Side Letter - see Note 9 — Related Party Transactions and Arrangements to our consolidated financial statements included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for further details).

We continue to focus on increasing occupancy of the portfolio by seeking new and replacement tenants for leases that expired or otherwise have been terminated. We believe that certain market tenant incentives we have used and expect to continue to use, including free rent periods and tenant improvements, will support our occupancy rate and extend the average duration of our leases upon commencement of executed leases. These incentives have delayed, and may delay or reduce cash flow in the future for some period. Our ability to generate net cash from our property operations depends, in part on the amount of additional cash we can generate through new or renewal leases, which is not assured, and on our ability to access any excess cash we are able to generate from properties that are encumbered by mortgages where a cash trap event has occurred (see below for more details), which also is not assured.

Dividend Policy

Through the six months ended June 30, 2022, we paid dividends to our common stockholders at our current annual rate of $3.20 per share of Class A common stock (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split), or $0.80 per share (adjusted for the Reverse Stock Split) on a quarterly basis. The board subsequently decided not to declare any further dividends for the subsequent periods through September 30, 2023. There is no assurance as to when or if the board will declare future dividends or the amount of any future dividends that may be declared.

Mortgage Loans

We had six mortgage loans secured by seven of our eight properties with an aggregate balance of $399.5 million as of September 30, 2023 with a weighted-average effective interest rate of 4.35%. All our mortgage loans bear interest at a fixed rate, except for a mortgage loan agreement secured by Capital One N.A. that has terms now based on SOFR for which we have a related derivative agreement for a “pay-fixed” swap which effectively converts the loan to a fixed rate. We do not have any scheduled principal payments due on our mortgage notes payable during the remainder of the year ending December 31, 2023. The loan secured by Nine Times Square in the principal amount of $49.5 million matures in April 2024. This loan bears interest at a rate equal to 3.72% per annum. We are currently considering a multitude of options to repay or refinance this mortgage note payable prior to or on its maturity, including extending the term with the existing lender, which may require a partial repayment of the mortgage note, or refinancing with a new lender. The interest rate on any refinanced or extended loan is likely to be greater than the current rate

We do not currently have a commitment for a corporate-level revolving credit facility or any other corporate-level indebtedness, and there can be no assurance we would be able to obtain corporate-level financing on favorable terms, or at all. We do not currently anticipate incurring additional indebtedness secured by our existing properties, however, despite a tightening of the credit markets, we expect to be able to continue to use debt financing as a source of capital especially if we acquire additional properties.

1140 Avenue of the Americas

We breached both a debt service coverage provision and a reserve fund provision under our non-recourse mortgage secured by the 1140 Avenue of the Americas property in each of the last 13 quarters ended September 30, 2023. The principal amount of the loan was $99.0 million as of September 30, 2023. These breaches are not events of default, rather they require excess cash, if any, generated at the property (after paying operating costs, debt service and capital/tenant replacement reserves) to be held in a segregated account as additional collateral under the loan. The covenants for this loan may be cured if we satisfy the required debt service coverage ratio for two consecutive quarters, whereupon the additional collateral will be released. We can remain subject to this reserve requirement through maturity of the loan without further penalty or ramifications. As of September 30, 2023 and December 31, 2022 we had $3.6 million in cash that is retained by the lender and maintained in restricted cash on our consolidated balance sheet as of those dates.

8713 Fifth Avenue

We breached a debt service coverage ratio covenant under the non-recourse mortgage secured by 8713 Fifth Avenue in each of the last 13 quarters ended September 30, 2023. The principal amount for the loan was $10.0 million as of September 30, 2023. The breach of this covenant did not result in an event of default but rather triggered an excess cash flow sweep period. We have the ability to avoid the excess cash flow sweep period by electing to fund a reserve in the amount of $125,000 of additional collateral in cash or as a letter of credit. As of the date of filing this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, we had not yet determined whether we will do so, and have not previously done so. If we do not elect to continue to fund the $125,000 additional collateral in a subsequent quarter, then the excess flow sweep period would commence in such quarter and continue until the covenant breaches are cured in accordance with the terms of the loan agreement. Additionally, in the event that the debt service coverage ratio covenant remains in breach at or below the current level for two consecutive calendar quarters and the lender reasonably determines that such breach is due to the property not being prudently managed by the current manager, the lender has the right, but not the obligation, to require that we replace the current manager with a third party manager chosen by us. This property did not generate any excess cash since the breach occurred and thus no cash has ever been trapped related to this property. We signed a lease with a tenant at this property in November 2021. The tenant and began occupying a portion of the leased space in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and is expected to occupy the remainder of the space in the quarter ending March 31, 2024, which will bring the occupancy to 100%. We anticipate complying with the debt service coverage ratio under the non-recourse mortgage once the space is occupied in the quarter ending March 31, 2024.

Other Information

We entered into one new lease at 123 William Street representing over 12,658 square feet during the three months ended September 30, 2023. We are also working to increase the rental income at our other properties that are not fully occupied. There can be no assurance, however, that we will be able to lease all or any portion of the vacant space at any property on acceptable or favorable terms, or at all, or that we will not experience further terminations. Unless we are able to increase the occupancy at 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue on terms that allow us to cure the two remaining covenant breaches described above, we will be unable to access excess cash flow from those properties and the lenders may be able to exercise additional remedies.

Any cash that is restricted for the remaining breaches on 1140 Avenue of the Americas and 8713 Fifth Avenue mortgages (as disclosed above) are not available to be used for other corporate purposes. There is no assurance that we will be able to cure these breaches. Moreover, if we experience additional lease terminations, due to tenant bankruptcies or otherwise, or tenants placed on a cash basis continue to not pay rent, it is possible that certain of the covenants on other loans may be breached and we may also become restricted from accessing excess cash flows from those properties. Except as described herein, we were in compliance with the remaining covenants under our mortgage notes payable as of September 30, 2023.

Leasing Activity/Occupancy

We had an increase in occupancy level to 85.1% across our portfolio as of September 30, 2023, as compared to 82.7% as of December 31, 2022. The changes in occupancy were as follows:

- Occupancy at 9 Times Square increased to 68.0% as of September 30, 2023, compared to 61.9% as of December 31, 2022. The increase was due to two new leases signed during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- Occupancy at 123 William Street increased to 92.0% as of September 30, 2023 compared to 91.4% as of December 31, 2022. The increase was due to the signing of new leases and one termination during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- Occupancy at 1140 Avenue of the Americas increased to 74.6% as of September 30, 2023, compared to 70.9% as of December 31, 2022. The increase was due to three new leases signed during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.
- Occupancy at 8713 Fifth Avenue increased to 88.6% as of September 30, 2023, compared to 57.1% as of December 31, 2022. The increase was due to two new leases signed during the nine months ended September 30, 2023. We signed a lease with a new tenant at this property in November 2021, that began occupying a portion of the leased space in the quarter ended March 31, 2023 and is expected to occupy the remainder of the space in the quarter of the year ended December 31, 2023, which will bring the occupancy to 100.0%.

Capital Expenditures

For the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we funded an aggregate of $3.2 million of capital expenditures primarily for tenant and building improvements at 123 William Street, 9 Times Square 1140 Avenue of the Americas, and 8713 Fifth Avenue. We may invest in additional capital expenditures to further enhance the value of our properties. Additionally, many of our lease agreements with tenants include provisions for tenant improvement allowances. We expect the amount we invest in capital expenditures during the full year ending December 31, 2023, including amounts we expect to fund under new or replacement leases, will be lower when compared to the amount invested during the year ended December 31, 2022. However, this could change if management deems necessary. We funded our capital expenditures during the three months ended September 30, 2023 with cash on hand consisting of proceeds from previous offerings/financings and, cash retained from the Advisor by electing to receive shares of our Class A common stock in lieu of cash for its base management fee for January 2023. The economic uncertainty created by the COVID-19 global pandemic as well as the increased incidence of “work from home” has impacted and could continue to impact our decisions on the amount and timing of future capital expenditures.

Tender Offer by Affiliates of the Advisor

On September 27, 2023, Bellevue Capital Partners, LLC announced a tender offer to purchase up to 350,000 shares of our Class A common stock, at a purchase price equal to $10.25 per share. The tender offer expired on October 26, 2023 and 223,460 shares were tendered and accepted by Bellevue for a purchase price to Bellevue of an aggregate of approximately $2.3 million, less any fees, expenses, or taxes withheld. As a result, the tender offer increased total shares owned by Bellevue to approximately 45.1% of our total outstanding shares of Class A common stock as of October 30, 2023. For additional details see Note 14 — Subsequent Events.

Acquisitions and Dispositions

We had no acquisitions or dispositions during the nine months ended September 30, 2023.

We entered into a definitive purchase and sale agreement to sell our 421 W. 54th Street - Hit Factory property for $4.5 million during the three months ended September 30, 2023. We closed the sale on October 12, 2023. We evaluated this asset for held for sale classification and determined that it qualified for held for sale treatment based on our accounting policies, therefore, it is presented on the assets held for sale line item on our consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2023. The sole tenant terminated its lease early and vacated the space during the quarter ended June 30, 2018.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This section discusses the non-GAAP financial measures we use to evaluate our performance, including Funds from Operations (“FFO”), Core Funds from Operations (“Core FFO”) and Cash Net Operating Income (“Cash NOI”). A description of these non-GAAP measures and reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP measure, which is net income (loss), is provided below.

In December 2022 we announced that that we changed our business strategy and terminated our election to be taxed as a REIT effective January 1, 2023. However, our business and operations have not materially changed in the quarter ended September 30, 2023 since we did not make new investments. Therefore, we did not change any of the non-GAAP metrics that we have historically used to evaluate performance.

Funds from Operations and Core Funds from Operations

Funds from Operations

Due to certain unique operating characteristics of real estate companies, as discussed below, the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (“NAREIT”), an industry trade group, has promulgated a performance measure known as FFO, which we believe to be an appropriate supplemental measure to reflect the operating performance of a company with a business similar to our current business. FFO is not equivalent to net income or loss as determined under GAAP.

We calculate FFO, a non-GAAP measure, consistent with the standards established over time by the Board of Governors of NAREIT, as restated in a White Paper and approved by the Board of Governors of NAREIT effective in December 2018 (the “White Paper”). The White Paper defines FFO as net income or loss computed in accordance with GAAP, excluding depreciation and amortization related to real estate, gains and losses from sales of certain real estate assets, gain and losses from change in control and impairment write-downs of certain real estate assets and investments in entities when the impairment is directly attributable to decreases in the value of depreciable real estate held by the entity. Adjustments for consolidated partially-owned entities (including our OP) and equity in earnings of unconsolidated affiliates are made to arrive at our proportionate share of FFO attributable to our stockholders. Our FFO calculation complies with NAREIT’s definition.

The historical accounting convention used for real estate assets requires straight-line depreciation of buildings and improvements, and straight-line amortization of intangibles, which implies that the value of a real estate asset diminishes predictably over time. We believe that, because real estate values historically rise and fall with market conditions, including inflation, interest rates, unemployment and consumer spending, presentations of operating results for a company with a business similar to our current business using historical accounting for depreciation and certain other items may be less informative. Historical accounting for real estate involves the use of GAAP. Any other method of accounting for real estate such as the fair value method cannot be construed to be any more accurate or relevant than the comparable methodologies of real estate valuation found in GAAP. Nevertheless, we believe that the use of FFO, which excludes the impact of real estate related depreciation and amortization, among other things, provides a more complete understanding of our performance to investors and to management, and when compared year over year, reflects the impact on our operations from trends in occupancy rates, rental rates, operating costs, general and administrative expenses, and interest costs, which may not be immediately apparent from net income.

Core Funds from Operations

Beginning in the quarter ended September 30, 2020, following the listing of our Class A common stock on the NYSE, we began presenting Core FFO, also a non-GAAP metric. We have presented prior periods on a comparable basis so that the metric is useful to the users of our financial statements. We believe that Core FFO is utilized by other publicly-traded companies with businesses similar to our current business, although Core FFO presented by us may not be comparable to Core FFO reported by other companies that define Core FFO differently. In calculating Core FFO, we start with FFO, then we exclude the impact of discrete non-operating transactions and other events which we do not consider representative of the comparable operating results of our real estate operating portfolio, which is our core business platform. Specific examples of discrete non-operating items include acquisition and transaction related costs for dead deals, debt extinguishment costs, non-cash equity-based compensation and costs incurred for the 2022 contested proxy that were specifically related to the portion of our 2022 proxy contest and non-cash equity-based compensations costs incurred for the 2023 Tender Offer. We add back non-cash write-offs of deferred financing costs and prepayment penalties incurred with the early extinguishment of debt which are included in net income but are considered financing cash flows when paid in the statement of cash flows. We consider these write-offs and prepayment penalties to be capital transactions and not indicative of normal operating performance. Further, we do not consider the costs associated with the 2022 contested proxy, while paid in cash, to be indicative of normal operating performance. We also do not consider costs related to the tender offer to be indicative of normal operating performance. By excluding expensed acquisition and transaction dead deal costs as well as non-operating costs described above, we believe Core FFO provides useful supplemental information that is comparable for each type of real estate investment and is consistent with management’s analysis of the investing and operating performance of our properties. In future periods, we may also exclude other items from Core FFO that we believe may help investors compare our operating performance results.

The table below reflects the items deducted or added to net loss in our calculation of FFO and Core FFO for the periods presented.

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

<sup>(1)</sup> Includes expense related to the amortization of our restricted common shares and LTIP Units related to its multi-year outperformance agreement for all periods presented. Management has not added back the cost of the base management fee elected to be received by the Advisor in shares in lieu of cash or the Advisor's base management fee used by the Advisor under the Side Letter to purchase shares because such amounts are considered a normal operating expense. Such amounts included in net loss were zero and $0.5 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 and $1.3 million and $3.6 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2022, respectively.

<sup>(2)</sup> Amount relates to costs incurred for the 2022 proxy that were specifically related to the portion of the 2022 proxy contest. We do not consider these expenses to be part of our normal operating performance and has, accordingly, increased its Core FFO for this amount.

<sup>(3)</sup> Amount relates to costs that we incurred as it relates to the 2023 Tender Offer. We do not consider these expenses to be part of our normal operating performance and has, accordingly, increased its Core FFO for this amount.

Cash Net Operating Income

Cash NOI is a non-GAAP financial measure equal to net income (loss), the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, less income from investment securities and interest, plus general and administrative expenses, acquisition and transaction-related expenses, depreciation and amortization, other non-cash expenses and interest expense. In calculating Cash NOI, we also eliminate the effects of straight-lining of rent and the amortization of above- and below-market leases. Cash NOI should not be considered an alternative to net income (loss) as an indication of our performance or to cash flows as a measure of our liquidity.

We use Cash NOI internally as a performance measure and believe Cash NOI provides useful information to investors regarding our results of operations because it reflects only those income and expense items that are incurred at the property level. Therefore, we believe Cash NOI is a useful measure for evaluating the operating performance of our real estate assets and to make decisions about resource allocations. Further, we believe Cash NOI is useful to investors as performance measures because, when compared across periods, Cash NOI reflects the impact on operations from trends in occupancy rates, rental rates, operating costs and acquisition activity on an unlevered basis. Cash NOI excludes certain components from net income in order to provide results that are more closely related to a property's results of operations. For example, interest expense is not linked to the operating performance of a real estate asset and Cash NOI is not affected by whether the financing is at the property level or corporate level. In addition, depreciation and amortization, because of historical cost accounting and useful life estimates, may distort operating performance at the property level. Cash NOI presented by us may not be comparable to Cash NOI reported by other companies that may define Cash NOI differently. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of our operating results, Cash NOI should be examined in conjunction with net income (loss) as presented in our consolidated financial statements.

The table below reflects the items deducted or added to net loss in our calculation of Cash NOI for the periods presented:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,

Dividends

As noted above, we have not paid dividends to stockholders since those that were declared and paid through the six months ended June 30, 2022.

Decisions regarding the frequency and amount of any future dividends we pay on our Class A common stock are entirely at the discretion of our board of directors. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our ability to operate profitably and to generate sufficient cash flows from the operations. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to pay dividends on a regular basis on our Class A common stock or any other class or series of stock we may issue in the future. There is no assurance we will reinstitute the payment dividends at the previous rate, or at all. The amount of dividends we may pay to our stockholders is determined by our board of directors based on several factors, including funds available for dividends, our financial condition, provisions in our loans and any agreement we are party to that may restrict our ability to pay dividends or repurchase shares, capital expenditure requirements, as applicable, and requirements of Maryland law.

Previous Election as a REIT

We elected to be taxed as a REIT, effective commencing with our taxable year ended December 31, 2014. Our board subsequently authorized the termination of our REIT election which became effective on January 1, 2023. We believe that during the taxable year ended December 31, 2014 through December 31, 2022, we were organized and operated in a manner so that we qualified as a REIT. To qualify as a REIT during that period, we were required to distribute annually at least 90% of our REIT taxable income (which does not equal net income as calculated in accordance with GAAP) determined without regard for the deduction for dividends paid and excluding net capital gains and comply with several other organizational and operational requirements. As a REIT, we were generally not be subject to U.S. federal corporate income tax on the portion of our REIT taxable income that we distributed to our stockholders. A tax loss for a particular year eliminated the need to distribute REIT taxable income to meet the 90% distribution requirement for that year and minimized or eliminated the need to pay distributions to meet the distribution requirement in one or more subsequent years. We had a loss for tax purposes in the year ending December 31, 2022 and therefore there was no REIT taxable income requiring distribution to maintain our qualification as a REIT for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Inflation

We may be adversely impacted by inflation on the leases that do not contain indexed escalation provisions, or those leases which have escalations at rates which do not exceed or approximate current inflation rates. As of September 30, 2023, the increase to the 12-month CPI for all items, as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, was 3.7%. To help mitigate the adverse impact of inflation, approximately 84% of our leases with our tenants contain rent escalation provisions which increase the cash rent that is due under these leases over time by an average cumulative increase of 2.1% per year. These provisions generally increase rental rates during the terms of the leases either at fixed rates or other measures. As of September 30, 2023, based on straight-line rent, approximately 84% are fixed rate, scheduled escalation increases recorded on a straight-line basis, and 16% do not contain any escalation provisions.

In addition, we may be required to pay costs for maintenance and operation of properties which may adversely impact our results of operations due to potential increases in costs and operating expenses resulting from inflation. Currently, the impact of inflation has had an immaterial impact to operating costs. However, to the extent such costs exceed the tenants base year, certain but not all of our leases require the tenant to pay its allocable share of operating expenses, which may include common area maintenance costs, real estate taxes and insurance. This may reduce our exposure to increases in costs and operating expenses resulting from inflation. As the costs of general goods and services continue to rise, we may be adversely impacted by increases in general and administrative costs due to overall inflation.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

As of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, we are not a party to any material pending legal proceedings.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

Please refer to the risk factors disclosed in Part I, Item 1A. “Risk Factors” of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022, as amended and supplemented as follows:

Negative fluctuations in the price of our Class A common stock could impact our market capitalization and our ability to meet the ongoing listing requirements of the NYSE.

From time to time, fluctuations in the price of our Class A common stock have caused the Company’s market capitalization to fall below $15 million. Pursuant to Rule 802.01B in the Listed Company Manual of the NYSE, the Company must maintain a thirty-trading-day average market capitalization of $15 million. If we are unable to satisfy the market capitalization test, the NYSE would delist our Class A common stock from trading on the NYSE which could have a negative impact on stockholder liquidity and the Company’s ability to raise capital.
